Author receives honors

Dyane Monroe Dye Wood (Mrs. Frederick Fuller Kellogg Jr.), is a certified genealogist. She and her husband live in Little River. Wood has recently published a genealogy book, and as a result, has been awarded a number of honors in her field.

The book, The Wilcox-Luke Genealogy, captured first place in the Documented Family History category of the Dallas, Texas, Genealogical Society's annual book contest. It features the descendants of Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall of Connecticut, New York, Michigan and Indiana plus Revolutionary soldier John Luke and his descendants, who lived in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio and Michigan.

Dyane Monroe Dye Wood

The book also was awarded a second-place trophy, one of only two trophies given by the Washington County Genealogical Society in Washington, Iowa, for their Annual Book Contest.

In addition, her book won the Award of Excellence in the Anna Ford Book Contest, Heart of America Genealogical Society in Kansas City, Mo.

She was recently named a Fellow of the American College of Genealogists for her accomplishments in the field of genealogy and for her contributions both to volunteer civic work, as well as her services to the many patriotic societies of which she is a member.

At the request of the North Myrtle Beach Public Library as part of the library's regular Friday lecture series, she donated time by lecturing on how to write a genealogical book.

Wood now can add the letters C.G. (Certified Genealogist) as well as the initials F.A.C.G. (Fellow of the American College of Genealogists) after her name.

FOREWORD

Dyane Monroe Dye Wood has been tracing family history for years, and is also a world traveler who has soloed a plane, has circled the globe and been to all seven continents. She is among the few women who have stood at the geographical North Pole, and has voyaged in approximately 140 foreign countries by plane, train, cruise ship, helicopter, hovercraft, rickshaw, eskimo sled, camel, elephant, and the English Channel tunnel. As a result, she is a member of the Circumnavigators Club which requires that members must have circumnavigated the globe; and the Travelers Century Club whose members must have been to at least 100 foreign countries.

Dyane received two degrees, an A.B. in Fine Arts and French, and an M.A. in Spanish. She is a member of Phi Delta Kappa honorary education fraternity; Delta Tau Mu honorary collegiate art fraternity; and Mensa and Intertel high I.Q. societies. Formerly a French and Spanish teacher, she attended universities in the United States, studied French at the Sorbonne in Paris, and Spanish on a scholarship in Mexico.

In Tulsa Dyane was named President of The Tulsa Opera Guild; served as President of Tulsa Panhellenic; was President of Tulsa Delta Gamma Alumnae; and was Regent of her D.A.R. chapter, as she has always had a keen interest in patriotic societies.

In New York City, Dyane was elected to membership in the patriotic societies of Colonial Dames of America; Daughters of the Cincinnati; Daughters of Holland Dames; Mary Washington Colonial Chapter, D.A.R.; and Daughters of Founders and Patriots, which latter group she served as New York State Chapter President.

Dyane and her husband, Frederick Fuller Kellogg, Jr., whom I have known for forty years, divide their time between New York City and South Carolina. Both Dyane and Fred are members of The Hospitaller Order of Saint John of Jerusalem, Commandery of the Carolinas.

There are two daughters, Dr. Diandra Dye Wood, and Paula Dye Wood who married Gary Lucas Neal, Esq., a Tulsa lawyer. The two grandchildren are granddaughter Jordan Seabury Neal, and grandson Harrison Lucas Neal.

Dyane's consuming interest has always been genealogy. Recently she fulfilled the requirements of the Board for Certification of Genealogists, Falmouth, Virginia, in order to become a Certified Genealogist, and has now been qualified by the Board to add "Certified Genealogist" or the initials "C.G." after her name.

PREFACE

The purpose of The Wilcox-Luke Genealogy was to gather information about two Colonial families to preserve the data for descendants to be able to make additions, because no family history can ever be considered completed. And what an interesting group of descendants, which included the "Founder of Hollywood," as well as a woman who spent months at the South Pole, and a Commander in the French Foreign Legion stationed in Djibouti (formerly French Somalia) Africa.

My interest began with viewing some charming tintypes in the family album, and continued from there over a number of years with field trips and research in courthouses, archives, libraries, and contacting cousins.

First, I would like to thank my husband, Frederick Fuller Kellogg, Jr., for his assistance and helpfulness in this project, especially the field trips.

Very special thanks and appreciation were merited by the late Caroline Sanford Grose (1908-1995) who collected Wilcox family records from early Wilcox researchers. Additionally, Caroline loaned old photographs and her own original research, along with that of her cousin, the late Olive Jessup Studt (1909-1995) who rated thanks as well. Caroline also loaned data from Wilcox descendant Richard W. Welch, a competent researcher, who was not located, but earned thanks for his data, although he was not aware of this book.

Helen Carrier Roach of Sun City, Arizona was extremely helpful about lending data, daguerrotypes and documents, and merited many thanks. Her first cousins, whose data were appreciated very much, were Rosalie Galeener Aukland of Loda, Illinois and Oleeta Galeener Hatchett of Tucson, Arizona. Many thanks to Kathleen Scharer Cahours of Montrose, Michigan, author of the book Just Passin' By, who gave permission to use information from her book, and loaned photographs.

Much appreciation for shared research notes on the Luke Family Records was earned by Ruth Luke Ries of Metamora, Ohio, who compiled Luke family data for a 1978 family reunion, and loaned the data for publication in this book in order to preserve the information. Luke information was sent by Doris Faye Kibble Muller of Tyndall, South Dakota and Kenneth Earl Luke of Birmingham, Alabama, from which data only their immediate lines were abstracted for use in this book, with the hope that they will publish their own extensive Luke data some day.

My gratitude, too, to the staffs at the following institutions:
New York Genealogical & Biographical Society, 122 E. 58th St., New York,NY;
New York Public Library, Fifth Avenue & 42nd Street, New York City;
National Archives Northeast Division, 201 Varick Street, New York City; Detroit Public Library, Burton Historical Collection, Woodward Avenue.

Many people, too numerous to mention, have supplied information and clues about both the Wilcox and Luke lineage, and my appreciation goes to each one, with the hope that this far-from-complete book may be used to help other Wilcox-Luke searchers in their continued pursuit among the branches of the family tree.

During a lifetime most people amass collections of something, be it coin collections, stamp collections, Pre-Columbian art, or Chinese porcelain. Many times such items have been stolen, but burglars don't steal ancestors! Once found, they're yours to keep, which has made genealogy such an absorbing hobby.

NUMBERING SYSTEM

Three numbers were given to each individual:

1. Identification number: The first ancestor received the arabic identification number 1; his oldest child was 2, the next oldest 3, and so on.
2. Generation number: The earliest family head received a superscript[1].
3. Birth order number: Each child listed under a family head received a small roman numeral showing birth order, e.g. i. for the oldest child, and so on.

PRESENTATION OF INDIVIDUALS

First, the identification number was noted; next came the individual's name in bold-faced capitals including his generation number; then the line of generation enclosed by parentheses, naming father, grandfather and back to the first generation; finally the date/place of birth, date/place of death, and burial place, e.g.:

13. MILES[3] MARK WILCOX (Aaron[2], Joel[1]) b. 29 February 1828 (Tombstone) in New York (Census Records); d. 26 July 1886 (Tombstone & Obituary, Adrian Daily Times, 30 July 1886, p.4) in Palmyra, Lenawee County, Michigan; bur. Palmyra Village Cemetery (author's visit in 1955).

Marriage information (m.=married) was given with the date and place of marriage, the spouse's name in bold-faced capitals followed by birth date and place, plus names of parents if known, e.g.:

Christmas Day 1860, Palmyra, Michigan by Rev. John Walker (Wilcox Family Bible [hereinafter WFB],Toledo, Ohio: USB Publishing Company 1882) m. (2) ABIGAIL ANN LUKE b. 3 August 1834 Salem, Columbiana County, Ohio (Luke Family Bible, [hereinafter LFB]); d. 5 August 1904 Columbus, Ohio (Obituary, Adrian [Michigan] Daily Telegraph, 6 August, 1904, V.XVIII, p.4), dau. Elijah[2] Luke & Abigail Barton Luke (NEHGR, CVII:12).

Children of Miles[3] Mark Wilcox by his 1st and 2nd marriages were numbered as follows:

Children of Miles[3] Mark Wilcox and (1) Martha Gibbs Wilcox:

i. Mary Wilcox (no arabic numeral, as she died young);

27. ii. Harmon Gibbs Wilcox b. 29 April 1860 Michigan (WFB).

Children of Miles[3] Mark Wilcox and (2) Abigail Ann Luke Wilcox:

28. iii. Martha Elbertine Wilcox b.2 November 1862 Michigan (WFB).
29. iv. Nettie Elvira Wilcox b. 26 February 1865 Michigan (WFB).
30. v. Alma Marietta Wilcox b.8 September 1870 Ohio (WFB).

REFERENCES

Many of the references verifying statements about births, deaths, and so on were presented as in-text citations immediately after the statements to which they pertained throughout the text, the citation method preferred by the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record and the New England Historical and Genealogical Register for well over a century. This system was intrusive, but it was important, as genealogy always meant a great deal of detective work. As of January, 1996, the Record announced that sources would be cited in footnotes instead of in text, due to advances in word-processing software. Both footnotes and in-text citations were chosen for this book.

THE WILCOX GENEALOGY

FIRST GENERATION

JOEL WILCOX AND CATHARINE RANDALL

Connecticut was the birthplace of JOEL[1] WILCOX, who was born about the time of the Revolutionary War, and moved to upstate New York as a youth. The mists of time have obscured his birthplace. Possibly it was the picturesque village of Sharon dotted with church spires (Manuscript of Grace Dale, Fairfield, Connecticut, hereinafter DALE MS.[1]). Another suggestion was that perhaps Joel was born in the picture-book town of Simsbury, Connecticut with its ancient shuttered houses, as Joel, twin of Elizabeth Wilcox, was in the 1765 Simsbury Vital Records (hereinafter VR), within a decade of the right age for the subject Joel Wilcox. The 1820 Census[2] NY, Ontario Co., p.347, line 177 gave Joel's age as 26-45, i.e. born no earlier than 1775. Joel's parents' names were not preserved, but his father's name perhaps was Joel. The 1800 Connecticut Census had 3 counties with a Joel Wilcox: Litchfield (Sharon) p.241; Hartford (Simsbury) p.503 and Fairfield, p.38. Listed in Simsbury VR were 96 Willcoxon/Willcox/Wilcox names, including the name Joel, Albert C. Bates, Librarian, Simsbury Connecticut Births, Marriages and Deaths Transcribed from the Town Records, (Hartford: Published by Connecticut Historical Society, 1898) Index:343-344.

Even Sherlock Holmes would have had difficulty tracing Joel's moves, since he lived in several upstate New York counties, 1800-1830. The American Genealogist, hereinafter TAG, (1987) 62:22, said "After the Revolution...upstate New York...for lack of records is a genealogist's nightmare."

Mary J. Sibley "Upstate New York" Updated by Gerald J. Parsons, TAG (1980), 1:197 stated: "Fire, neglect and permissions to destroy after five years have depleted public records."

CATHARINE RANDALL was born ca. 1786 in New York (birthplace and age as per the 1850 Indiana Census, Fayette County, Harrison Township, p.216). Catharine's father's name was not preserved, but perhaps was Abel Randall, as she had a son Abel, and there were two Abel Randalls in the 1800 Census, Washington County, New York.

CHAUTAUQUA
NEW YORK

On the 5th of March 1801 in the crossroads village of Chester Town, which was still a wilderness of scattered cabins in Washington (now Warren) County, New York, the hamlet where both lived at the time, Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall were married, according to Martha Scott Osborne, comp., Wilcox/Wilcoxson Families of New England (Bowie, Maryland: Heritage Books, 1989), p.147 [hereinafter Wilcox]. Thomas Jefferson had just been elected President of the United States, having defeated incumbent President John Adams. During Jefferson's term of office employees of the federal government numbered 130 people. All gentlemen.

Chester Town was situated on the northern border of the county. The Eastern boundary was the Schroon River; the Western boundary was the Hudson River. The Northern edge touched Essex County and the Schroon Range; to the South was Warrensburg, with the magnificent panorama of the Kayaderosseras Mountains. Joel and Catharine Wilcox lived in an area of precipitous mountains, and land covered with stately maple, beech, pine, spruce and oak trees, their tops etched against the skyline. In the early days logs were floated down rivers to the lumber marts.

Over the years, researchers delved into Chester Town's early history, but encountered almost impenetrable shadows because the town records were twice destroyed by fire. Chester Town itself was founded 25 March 1799, formed from Thurman, and in 1805 there were only two log buildings in the hamlet now called the village of Chestertown, noted H. Perry Smith, History of Warren County, New York (Syracuse, New York: D. Mason & Co., publishers, 1885) p.537.

After a decade of marriage spent in Chester Town, the peripatetic pioneer Joel Wilcox who all his life had a touch of "Western fever" decided to migrate west to a new frontier with his wife and three children, Aaron Wilcox, Joel Wilcox, Jr. and Sarah Wilcox. As a result, from 1811 to 1817 (DALE MS.) Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall resided in McDonough Town, Chenango County, New York. McDonough derived its name from Commodore Macdonough of the United States Navy, but with a slight shift in spelling.

The first settlement in McDonough was made in 1795, when Sylvanus Moore emigrated from Simsbury, Connecticut, possibly where Joel Wilcox was born. The first town meeting was held at Sylvanus Moore's house on 4 March 1817. The names Wilcox and Randall were well represented as town officers elected at the first town meeting were Gates Willcox, Clerk; John Willcox, Commissioner of Highways; Nehemiah Randall and Josiah Randall, Fence Viewers; and Nehemiah Randall and Amos Randall, Inspectors of Common Schools, recorded James Hadden Smith, History of Chenango & Madison Counties, New York (Syracuse, New York: D. Mason & Co.,1880), pp.368-369, 372. The town's first grist mill was constructed in 1808 by Gates Willcox. (ibid. p.375).

Quarries located in the stony earth of the McDonough area yielded good quality flagstone and curbstone.

However, Joel Wilcox and other pioneer settlers decided that the stony soil was better suited to dairying than to being tilled. In any event, one of the essential crops planted was flax from which clothing was made for the family. The busy housewives found time to set up their looms to weave the indispensable fabric.

The first frame house in McDonough village was not erected until 1818 and the Joel Wilcox family left in 1817, so they probably dwelt in a log cabin during their years in the village. There was no post office in the town during that time either. In order to visit distant neighbors people traveled by horseback and looked for marked trees, that era's equivalent of street signs.

"The year without a summer" took place in 1816, and resulted from unusual weather patterns caused by the eruption of Tamboro Volcano in Java. June and July were the coldest months, when snow and killing frosts ruined the crops. People starved and many decided to move onward. Perhaps this was the reason that during the year 1817 Joel and his family again relocated, this time to Ontario (now Monroe) County, New York, where they remained until 1833 (DALE MS.) Joel Wilcox was in the town of Perinton in the 1820 NY Census, Ontario County, p.347, line 177.

In early records Perinton was also spelled Perrington and Perrinton, but the town actually was named "Perrinton" for the first settler. His name was Glover or Grover Perrin, a Revolutionary War soldier who came to the "Genesee Country" between 1789 and 1791 (Anah B. Yates, Interesting Incidents About Pioneers of Perinton, New York, from Honeoye Falls,(New York) Times, pp.1-2, a notebook of pasted-in newspaper clippings dated 1920-1921, which notebook was presented to the New York Public Library, Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street, New York City.

The town of Perinton, organized 26 May 1812, was taken from Boyle, Ontario County and was a part of that county until 1821, when it was incorporated with Monroe County, according to Hanford Franklin in Name Sources of Townships of Monroe County, New York, newspaper clippings from the Monroe Republican, datelined May 1, 1930, pasted in a notebook in the possession of the New York Public Library.

Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall had a daughter, Susan Blackman Wilcox, born ca. 1820 in Perinton. W.H. McIntosh, The History of Monroe County, New York (Philadelphia: Published by Everts, Ensign & Everts, 716 Filbert St., Press of J.B. Lippincott, 1877), p.221, mentioned that Perinton's first settler had a daughter, Nancy Perrin Blackman, who was married in May 1803 to Philetus Blackman and in 1877 aged 98 lived in nearby Wayne County. Perhaps this was the source of Susan's middle name, to honor the founding family of the town where she was born, or possibly the Blackmans and the Wilcoxes were related. Reynold Webb Wilcox, Descendants of William Wilcoxson, Vincent Meigs & Richard Webb ([n.p.]: Wright Pub., 1893), p.2, said Patience Wilcoxson (John[2], William[1]) b. 1 February 1664 m. 4 October 1681 Ebenezer Blackman.

New York State was beautiful then as now, and Joel and his increasing family found towering oak, maple and beech trees growing on the rolling landscape of Ontario County. The soil was fertile, and plodding oxen were still used in agriculture. Before the Joel Wilcox family left to go "West" some houses were still framed by old scribe rule with marks apparent on every mortise, brace and beam.

Lockwood R. Doty, History of the Genesee Country (Chicago: S.J. Clarke Publishing Company, 1925), pp.537-540, clarified the "Genesee Country" and Western New York: "At the close of the Revolutionary War, Massachusetts and New York both asserted the right, under royal grant, to land in Western New York. Claims were adjusted by the Hartford Convention December 16, 1786. Massachusetts now owned the preemption rights, but New York retained sovereignty and jurisdiction over the territory."

The scenic Genesee Valley featured a complicated drainage pattern of the Genesee and Niagara Rivers, resulting in the awe-inspiring Niagara Falls. (ibid. p.15).

Perinton was Township #12, Range 4 of the Phelps and Gorham Purchase in the original survey. Perinton's pioneer period ceased when the Erie Canal was opened in 1822. Formally dedicated in October 1825, the Erie Canal, which connected the Hudson River with the Great Lakes, entered the town at its eastern boundary, William F. Peck, History of Rochester and Monroe County, New York, 2 vols. (New York and Chicago: Pioneer Publishing Company, 1908), 1:407.

In 1970, approximately a century and a half after the construction of the Erie Canal, the author was invited to join friends for four days navigating the Erie Canal aboard their large sailboat, floating from Schenectady to Syracuse through the locks. All four passengers were handed long poles to use to push with might and main against the interior walls of the locks to keep the boat from crashing into the masonry sides of the canal each time the water cascaded over the walls in order to raise the boat to the next water level. Even after one hundred fifty years the fabled Erie Canal was pronounced by everyone aboard to be a most impressive piece of engineering. Joel Wilcox and Catharine Wilcox must have found it a marvel as well.

The wedding of daughter Catharine Zilpah Wilcox in Perinton, New York on the 29th of August 1829 to Hallam Richards was a joyous affair (Research of Richard Welch, museum director in many states, hereinafter WELCH MS.)[3].

[3]"WELCH MS." Richard Welch's manuscript of 4 pages featured charts, with additions by the late Caroline Sanford Grose (1908-1995) & the late Olive Jessup Studt (1909-1995), plus 3 more pages furnished by Helen Carrier Roach, Sun City, Arizona. Author is in possession of a photocopy of the entire MS. No current address for Richard Welch. See footnote[4] p.19 concerning search for Richard Welch.

MICHIGAN

Finally, Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall left the state of New York and made what was to be Joel's last odyssey. "Western fever" drew them to Michigan Territory about 1833 (DALE MS.) four years before Michigan became a state. When they emigrated to Michigan Territory, they perhaps traveled via the Erie Canal and loaded their valises and trunks on a line boat to Buffalo, then boarded a schooner across Lake Erie to Detroit, an old city founded in 1701 by French explorer Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac. Joel Wilcox chose Lenawee County in the Southeast corner of the Territory, close to the borders of Ohio and Indiana. The name "Lenawee" was a Shawnee word meaning "Indian."

Upon arriving in the Territory of Michigan, travelers encountered faint trails for roads, and dense forests inhabited by wolves, bears and wolverines, a fierce, powerful animal which can weigh up to 60 pounds when full grown. Wolverines, now an endangered species, rarely found even in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, gave Michigan the nickname "Wolverine State." Among other hardships were streams to ford, no roof at night, and Indians, sometimes friendly, sometimes unfriendly. Once pioneers settled in Michigan Territory, Indian wigwams were slowly replaced by romantic log cabins built by pioneers like Joel Wilcox.

"Neighbors" were often located fifteen or twenty miles apart. According to Pioneer Collections of Michigan (Lansing: W.S. George & Company, 1881), 3:554: "The grounds for miles were handsomely wooded with tall, majestic oaks, with no underbrush. In the near forest [were] ash, maple, black walnut, cherry and whitewood." Axe strokes soon rang through the forest to clear farmland.

Michigan Territory was not an educational and cultural wasteland, however, since in 1817 a distinguished college, the University of Michigan, was founded at Ann Arbor in Washtenaw County, just to the north of Lenawee County.

Joel Wilcox, Sr. evidently died in Michigan between 1833 and 1840 (DALE MS.). According to the custom of that era, he was probably buried on his home farm. Any records of Joel Wilcox's few years in Michigan were destroyed when the Lenawee County Court House erected in 1839 at Adrian, the county seat, burned March 14, 1852, taking with it all the records of the County Clerk's office, as per Michigan Pioneer Collections (Detroit: William Graham, 1880), 1:237.

In response to a query about any Will filed for Joel Wilcox, Sr., correspondence dated 28 November 1994 to the author by the Probate Court of Lenawee County Michigan disclosed there were no records for Joel Wilcox, Sr.

The 1840 Michigan Census, Lenawee County showed that Catharine Wilcox, now head of household, lived in Palmyra, Michigan (p.148), while son Aaron Wilcox lived in nearby Ogden, Michigan (p.150). Joel Wilcox, Sr. was not listed, and never again appeared in any subsequent Census Record.

Later, Catharine Wilcox, 64, packed her trunks and moved to Indiana, where Catharine (spelled "Katharine" by the census taker) was head of household in the 1850 Census, Fayette County, Harrison Township, p.216, with R.J.Wilcox, 25, Lydia Ann Wilcox, 22, and Mary E. Wilcox, 19.

The author hired a Connersville, Indiana researcher Jacie W. Ann Runyan, whose name was provided by County Clerk Ann W. Frost, to search the Fayette County Court House records for a Wilcox Will or probate [no luck]; to read the library newspaper obituary files [no results]; & to check the Connersville City Cemetery survey. Listed were Lucy W.Wilcox, 77, d.1857 (b.1780) and Joel Correll Wilcox, son of Joel & Lucy, 12y.8m., d.1815, Lot 14, Sec.2. Mrs. Runyan searched the cemetery, but their stones were missing. Their names are right but dates are too early.

Children of Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall Wilcox:

2. i. Aaron[2] Wilcox, b. 10 November 1803 (Tombstone) Chester Town, Washington now Warren County, New York.
3. ii. Joel Wilcox, Jr., b. ca. 1805 probably Chester Town, Washington now Warren County, New York (WELCH MS).
4. iii. Sarah Maria Wilcox, b. ca. 1808 probably Chester Town, Washington now Warren County, New York (ibid.).
5. iv. Catharine Zilpah Wilcox, b. 20 December 1811 probably McDonough Town, Chenango County, New York (ibid.).
6. v. Russell Wilcox, b. ca. 1814-15, probably McDonough Town, Chenango County, New York (ibid.).
7. vi. Lewis Newman Wilcox, b. ca. 1816 probably McDonough Town, Chenango County, New York (ibid.).
8. vii. Abel P. Wilcox b. 6 November 1817 New York (ibid.).
9. viii. Susan Blackman Wilcox b. ca. 1820 (D/C) Perinton, Ontario (now Monroe) County, New York.
10. ix. Ransom J. Wilcox, b. ca. 1825 (WELCH MS.) Perinton, Monroe County, New York.
11. x. Lydia Ann Wilcox, b. ca. 1825-27 (D/C) Perinton, Monroe County, New York.
12. xi. Mary Elizabeth Wilcox, b. 22 January 1829 (WELCH MS.) Perinton, Monroe County, New York (D/C).

Family members have been puzzling for years about Joel Wilcox's line. Wm.Cutter, New England Families (New York: Lewis Historical Publishing Co., 1915), p.679 presented:

I William Wilcoxson, from England to Stratford, Connecticut m. Margaret Birdseye;
II Sgt. Samuel Wilcoxson m. Hannah Rice;
III William Wilcox b. 1670 m. Elizabeth Wilson;
IV Amos Wilcox b. 1700 m. Joanna Hillyer;
V Col. Amos Wilcox b. May 1729 m. Hannah Hoskins.

Children of Col. Amos Wilcox & Hannah Hoskins Wilcox:

1. Amos Wilcox b. 11 March 1750;
2. Roger Wilcox b. 9 June 1752;
3. David Wilcox b. 2 December 1753;
4. Hannah Wilcox b. 17 December 1755;
5. Phebe Wilcox b. 26 June 1758;
6. Zelek Wilcox b. 17 November 1763;
7/8. Twins {Elizabeth Wilcox b. 26 July 1765;
{J O E L Wilcox b. 26 July 1765;
9. Robert Wilcox b. 12 November 1767.

Noah Phelps in History of Simsbury, Granby and Canton [Connecticut] 1642-1845 (Hartford: Press of Case, Tiffany & Burnham, 1845), p.174, listed Sergeant Samuel Willcox d. 12 March 1713, left 3 sons, including William m. Elizabeth Willson. William's son Amos m. Joanna Hillyer 6 November 1725. Amos's son Amos (#V) was born 15 May 1729.

Col. Amos Wilcox (1729-1775) m. Hannah Hoskins 1749; Simsbury VR listed nine children, incuding twins, Elizabeth and Joel, b. 26 July 1765. (George E. McCracken "The Connecticut Willcocksons" TAG, (January 1983), 59:45-46.) If this is the Joel Wilcox who married Catharine Randall, no positive proof has been located yet.

Joel Wilcox, #8 above was b. 1765, but the Joel Wilcox who married Catharine Randall gave his age as 26-45 in the 1820 census, meaning a birthdate of 1775 at the earliest. However, the age given in a census can vary considerably.

The foregoing suggestions proposed William Wilcoxson as Joel's ancestor, but the only family names repeated in the William Wilcoxson and the Joel Wilcox, Sr. lines were Joel and Elizabeth, the names of the twin children of Col. Amos Wilcox. Elizabeth was the middle name of Mary Elizabeth Wilcox (1829-1907), daughter of Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall.

The Chart of Lineal Ascendants of Levi Wilcox, an unpublished manuscript by Elijah Hunter Owen at The Detroit Public Library's Burton Historical Collection (L929.2 W6440)) gave the following line which descended from a very early Hartford resident, John[1] John[2] Ephraim[3] Janna[4] Aaron[5] Luther[6] Horace[7] Wilcox, all of Connecticut. The names Aaron Wilcox, Luther Wilcox and Horace Wilcox show up in the names of descendants of Joel Wilcox.

Another possible clue as to cousinship was compiled by Hiram T. Wilcox, Victor, New York, October 1940, including unpublished records of William Wilcox, Perinton, New York. The typed data, in the Detroit Public Library's Burton Historical Collection, pointed to William Wilcoxson of Stratford Connecticut as the ancestor of Joel Wilcox.

More research must be done in order to solve the enigma of the ancestry of Joel Wilcox.

SECOND GENERATION

CHILDREN OF JOEL WILCOX AND CATHARINE RANDALL

2. Chester Town, New York was the birthplace of AARON[2] WILCOX (Joel[1]) b.10 November 1803 (Tombstone) in Washington now Warren County, New York; d. 12 February 1864 (Tombstone) Palmyra Township, Lenawee County, Michigan.

Aaron Wilcox had regular features, straight brown hair just above the collar of his frock coat, plus unobtrusive chin whiskers in the fashion of the era. In the somewhat blemished copy of the only picture of him available to his descendants today, his eyes appeared to be blue, he wore a white shirt, a wide cravat and a redingote or frock coat.

Aaron Wilcox m. ca. 1826-27 AZUBAH MARK b. 1803 Kingsbury Town, Washington County, New York (Osborne, Wilcox, p.3). The Biblical name "Azubah" was misspelled "Azuba" on her tombstone, but correctly spelled "Azubah" in Lenawee County Deeds 1850-59. Miles Mark, Azubah's father, by 1820 lived in Bristol, Ontario County (1820 NY Census Ontario County, p.55). Later, Miles Mark became a pioneer settler of Chautauqua County in Western New York State, according to Andrew W. Young, History of Chautauqua County, New York (Buffalo: Matthews & Warren, 1875), p.547: Town of Sherman [S.W. Part]: "A few years after Mr. Ross came Miles Mark [1825]."

In Cartes de Visite (Calling Cards) in 19th Century Photography, William C. Darrah, (Gettysburg, Pennsylvania: Published by author, 1981) explained that the daguerrotype was the most popular type of photograph from its inception in 1839. Daguerrotypes and tintypes were unique one-of-a-kind images, and only a single likeness resulted from each photographic exposure.

Several decades ago, when there was still an old-time tintype artist at the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Michigan, suburban Detroit, the author spent a whole afternoon posing for a dozen or so authentic tintypes. The white-haired tintype artist used an iron head clamp, adjustable for height and equipped with a weighted base which firmly held the subject in position. It was necessary to remain motionless while keeping the same facial expression for a time, depending on how much natural light came into the studio from outside. To take subsequent images it was necessary to repeat the process.

Historically fascinating was Kingsbury Town, where the Miles Mark family lived. In olden times primeval Indian trails crisscrossed the town. Indians on the warpath were later supplanted by warlike maneuvers of Tory sympathizers during the Revolutionary War, when many courthouses burned and records were destroyed.

Vermont was formed from part of Washington County in 1791 wrote William L. Stone, Washington County History (New York: NY History Co. 1901), p.4). Granted 11 May 1762 to 22 Connecticut associates the Kingsbury Patent was a 6-1/2 square mile area. It had very strong Tory leanings during the Revolutionary War said History of Washington County, New York (Philadelphia: Everts & Ensign, 1878), p.421. Introduction to Historic Resources in Washington County, New York (Granville, New York: Grastorf Press, 1976), pp.92-93 said that Kingsbury kept its original boundaries.

And where did Aaron Wilcox and Azubah Mark meet each other? Probably in Ontario County, New York. Miles Mark lived in Bristol in 1820, while Joel Wilcox lived in Perinton the same year (NY Census of Ontario County, p.55 and p.347, line 177, respectively). W.H. McIntosh, History of Monroe County, New York (Philadelphia: Everts, Ensign & Everts, 1877), at p.221: [In] Perrinton "Milis [sic] Marks had a blacksmith shop upon one corner of the Easton property farm." Aaron Wilcox and Azubah Mark were married probably in Monroe County, New York, as their first four children were born in New York (Census records).

Miles Mark b. Vermont: in the 1880 Census, Lenawee County, Palmyra Township, Dwelling 42/Family 42 of Miles Wilcox, Azubah gave her father's birthplace as Vermont, but Vermont was not formed from New York until 1791 and since Azubah was born 1803, Miles Mark was born prior to 1791, ergo possibly in what was then a part of New York; he went to Ontario County, New York; and finally settled in the town of Sherman as per Andrew Young in History of Chautauqua County, New York, (Buffalo: Matthews & Warren, 1875): Town of Sherman [S.W. Part]: "A few years after Mr. Ross came Miles Mark [1825]" p.547. Miles Mark was enumerated in 1830 Chautauqua County Census, p.400. Since Azubah named her oldest son Miles Mark Wilcox, and since two labeled photos of Azubah's brother Aaron Mark, and his wife, taken by C.H. Harris studio in Sherman, Chautauqua County, where Miles Mark lived (photographs in possession of the author), the preponderance of evidence showed that Azubah's father was named Miles Mark. For the photos Aaron Mark wore a velvet-collared frock coat, while his wife donned a small chenille cap with narrow ribbons tied under her chin and perched granny glasses on her nose.

In the 1840 Michigan Census Lenawee County, Ogden Township, p.140, Aaron Wilcox homesteaded on 80 acres of government land; in 1850 in Palmyra township he was on 100 acres he exchanged for his 80-acre farm in Ogden, according to Richard Illenden Bonner, Memoirs of Lenawee County, Michigan (Madison, Wisconsin: Western Historical Association, 1909), 2:721, hereinafter Memoirs.

The United States was at war with Mexico 1845-1848 and thereby annexed Texas. Steam locomotives appeared in the 1850s, when Aaron Wilcox was first found in Lenawee County, Michigan records of deeds.

Lenawee County [Michigan] Deeds (hereinafter LCDeeds) showed the following land transactions of Aaron Wilcox:

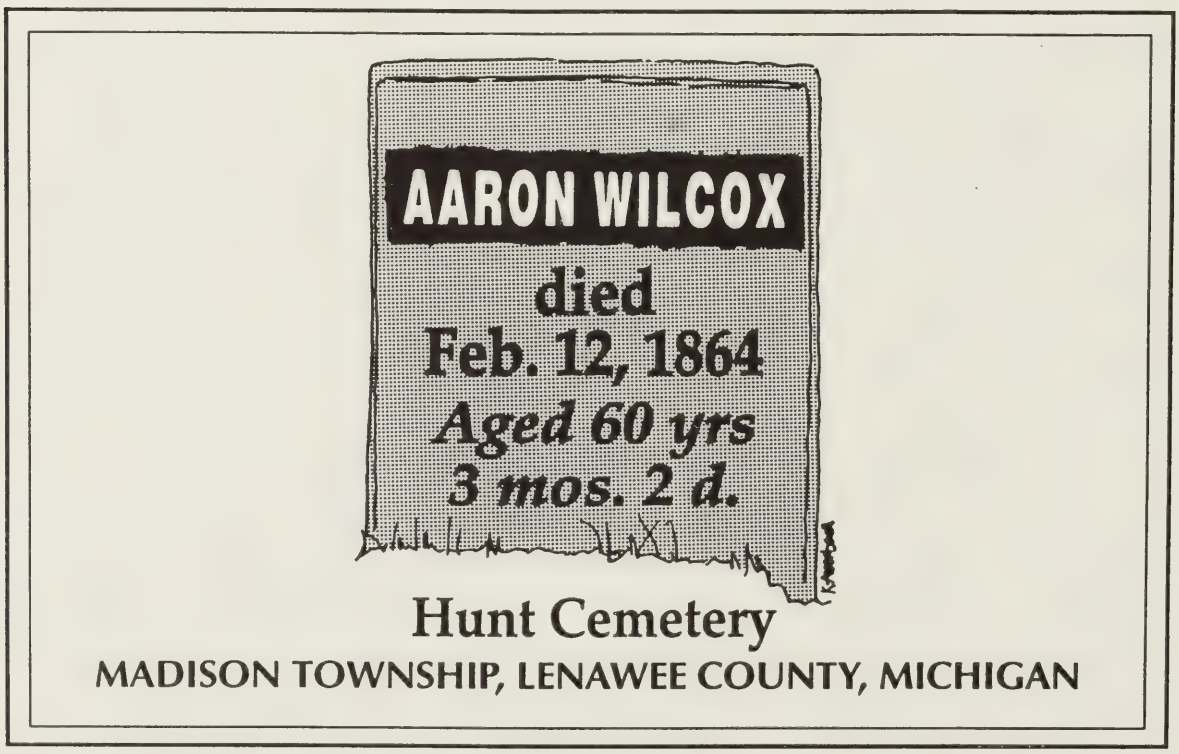
Andrew Jackson, the first "log cabin" president was in office when Aaron Wilcox built a log cabin ca. 1834-35. The Wilcoxes felt at home in Michigan Territory because the topography with Great Lakes scooped out by glaciers was similar to that of New York State with its Finger Lakes formed by the same glacial action. Even the speech and accents sounded familiar because so many recent inhabitants migrated from New England and New York to Michigan.

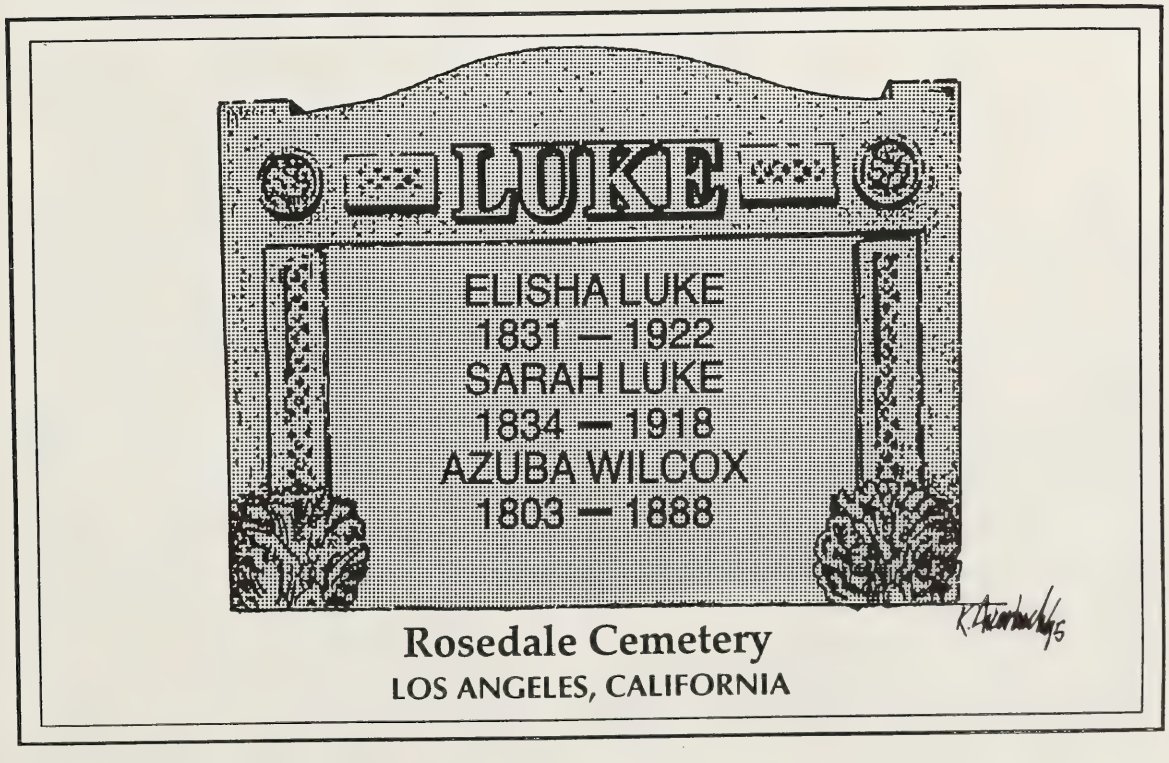


Aaron Wilcox was buried in Hunt Cemetery, Madison Township, Lenawee County, Michigan, located in the extreme eastern part of Sec. 35, a few miles south of Adrian, Michigan, the county seat, 3-1/2 miles from US 223, south down M 52 passing through the village of Madison and continuing south to Gorman Road.

The Hunt cemetery was laid out within the boundaries of M 52, Gorman Road, and Baker Highway. The marker of Aaron Wilcox was placed in the first row of graves by Gorman Road, seven graves west of Baker Highway. On his tombstone was carved the inscription: "Aaron Wilcox died Feb. 12, 1864, aged 60 yrs. 3 mos. 2 d." (author's visit in 1954; and again on 7 August 1994).

The Lenawee County Michigan Probate Court wrote on 28 November 1994 that no Will was on file for Aaron Wilcox.

Azubah Mark Wilcox d. 25 January 1888 in Los Angeles, California; buried Rosedale Cemetery (Rosedale Cemetery Records Los Angeles, Section J, Lot 95, Grave 2SE) beside her only daughter Sarah Wilcox and Sarah's husband, Elisha Luke (ibid. Section J, Lot 95, Grave H2SW). Azubah Mark Wilcox and Aaron Wilcox separated in the 1850s, and she lived variously with son Miles Mark Wilcox in Michigan, and with daughter Sarah Wilcox Luke in Michigan and California.



Children of Aaron Wilcox and Azubah Mark Wilcox:

13. i. Miles[3] Mark Wilcox b. 29 February 1828 (Birthdate on Tombstone) New York.
ii. Son (perhaps Joel Wilcox), b. ca. 1830 (listed in 1845 Michigan local Census, but not with Aaron's family in 1850). A Joel Wilcox, 20, b.NY, enumerated in 1850 Michigan Census, Lenawee County, Adrian Township, p.587, Wife Lovisa Wilcox, 17, b. Vermont, married within the year, possibly was Aaron's son, as Aaron's 1st son was named Miles Mark for the maternal grandfather and the 2nd son could have been named Joel for the paternal grandfather.
14. iii. Harvey Henderson Wilcox b. ca. 1832 in New York (age 18, 1850 Michigan Census, Lenawee County, Blissfield, p.373).
15. iv. Sarah Wilcox, b. 18 July 1834 New York (Date & state on California D/C).

Last four children b. Ogden Township, Lenawee County, Michigan (1850 Michigan Census Lenawee County, p.384):

16. v. Lewis Wilcox, b. 4/5 September 1836 (Tombstone); twin of Luther Wilcox.
17. vi. Luther Wilcox b. 4/5 September 1836 (Tombstone); twin of Lewis Wilcox.
18. vii. (Benjamin) Franklin Wilcox, b. 28 November 1840 (WELCH MS.).
19. viii. Horace Wilcox, b. 26 October 1842 (WELCH MS.); see p.35, Horace #19.

3. JOEL[2] WILCOX, Jr. (Joel[1]) b. ca. 1805 (WELCH MS.) probably in Chester Town, Washington (now Warren) County, New York; m. LUCY WISE (ibid.). Contractor Joel Wilcox, Jr. moved from Lenawee County, Michigan to Harrisburg, Fayette County, Indiana. In 1850 Joel, his wife and son lived in Connersville, Indiana (See p.9, ¶ 2 regarding research in Connersville). His brother, sisters and mother lived in Harrison Township, Fayette County, Indiana (1850 Census, p.216). Joel Wilcox, Jr. d. Pennsylvania (DALE MS.), no town specified. The Indiana State Department of Health Vital Records Section, Marie Von Spreckelsen, 1330 West Michigan Street, P.O. Box 1964, Indianapolis, Indiana 46206-1964 advised 28 November 1994 that death records begin 1900 and his name was not recorded, as did the Lenawee County Michigan Probate Court on 28 November 1994.

Not listed in the 1880 Census (T9-276) Fayette County, Indiana was Joel Wilcox, Jr. nor was his son, Edward W. Wilcox. There may have been other children.

Child of Joel Wilcox, Jr. and Lucy Wise Wilcox:

i. Edward[3] W. Wilcox, b. ca. 1840 Indiana (1850 Indiana Census, Fayette County Connersville, p.184).

4. SARAH[2] MARIA WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. ca. 1808 (WELCH MS.) probably Chester Town, Warren County, New York; d. Fremont, Steuben County, Indiana (ibid.); m.(1) ORIN GLEASON (ibid.) m. (2) NATHAN AUSTIN (DALE MS.). A Nathan Austin b.19 May 1802; d. 17 July 1884 (Tombstone) perhaps was Sarah Maria Wilcox Gleason Austin's husband, as he was buried in Hunt Cemetery, Lenawee County, Michigan, near her brother Aaron.

Clerk of the Steuben Circuit Court, at Angola, Indiana, Marilyn Carney, stated in a letter of 21 December 1994 that their records showed no probate file for Sarah Maria Wilcox Gleason Austin. The Lenawee County Michigan Probate Court in a letter dated 28 November 1994 located a Petition for Appointment of Administrator, Lib.135, p.145, 29 September 1897 for an Orrin Gleason who died intestate 1 September 1897, of Hudson, petitioner Jane E. Gleason. This Orrin Gleason b. 1 December 1826; d. 1 September 1897 was buried with [wife] Jane (1842-1932) Maple Grove Cemetery, Hudson Township, Sec. X, the wrong age to be Sarah's husband as she was b. 1808, twenty years before he was born in 1828 (Cemetery records).

A mortgage was listed on July 29, 1856 between Aaron Wilcox, of Palmyra, and Nathaniel Gleason, of Palmyra, $204 down and $204 per year, paid off May 21, 1859. This mortgage attested to the connection between the Wilcoxes and the Gleasons, both of Palmyra, Michigan, and referred to E 1/2 of SW 1/4, Section 31, T7S R4E, a total of 95 acres in Lenawee County, Michigan.

The following GLEASON GENEALOGY may be of interest to any descendants of Sarah Maria Wilcox and Orin Gleason:

Orin[7] Gleason perhaps descended from Nathaniel[6], Jonas[5], Aaron[4], Thomas[3], Thomas[2], Thomas[1] b. 6 July 1774 Rowe, Massachusetts; d. 24 February 1832 Palmyra, Michigan, who m. 1793 in Rowe Matilda Brown b. 28 March 1777 in Rowe; d. 11 April 1841 Palmyra, Michigan.

Nathaniel[6] Gleason moved in 1806 to Chenango County, New York, where Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall lived 1811-1817. Nathaniel Gleason settled in Preston; moved to Wayne County, New York in 1823; went to Michigan and took up a farm in Palmyra Township, Lenawee County in 1829; Joel Wilcox moved nearby in 1833. Nathaniel Gleason came in 1830, settling in the southwest corner of Palmyra Township, six miles from Adrian, one mile from Ogden Station, as per John Barber White, Genealogy of the Descendants of Thomas Gleason of Watertown, Massachusetts 1607-1909 (Haverhill, Massachusetts: Nichols Print, 1909), pp.150-151,258,

I. Thomas[1] Gleason b. 1607 England, prob. Sulgrave, Northampton County; d. 1686 Cambridge, Massachusetts; m. England Susanna Page d. Boston, Massachusetts (ibid. p.19).

II. Thomas[2] Gleason b. 1637 probably in England; m. (1) Sarah _____; m. (2) Mary_____ (ibid. pp.19,21).

III. Thomas[3] Gleason b. 1671 Sherborn, Massachusetts; m. Mary Mellen (1688-1727) (ibid. p.31).

IV. Aaron[4] Gleason b. 1720 Oxford, Massachusetts; d. 1796 Rowe, Massachusetts; m. Eunice Kenney b. Sutton, Massachusetts; d. 1792 Rowe, Massachusetts (ibid. p.51).

V. Jonas[3] Gleason b. 1748 Oxford, Massachusetts; d. 1815 Rowe, Massachusetts; m. Lucy Harwood b. 1746 Vermont; d. 1828 Williamstown, Massachusetts (ibid. p.85).

Jonas[3] Gleason, Revolutionary War Soldier

Jonas was prominent in Rowe and Myrifield; a deacon of the First Congregational Church of Rowe; Corporal in Capt. Gideon Chapin's company of Minute men Apr. 21, 1775, for the Lexington Alarm; served 19 days. Later was private in Capt. Lawrence Kemp's company, Col. Leonard's Regt. Feb. 23, 1777, to Apr. 10, 1777, was at Ticonderoga; also served in Capt. Seth Howard's company, Col. David Wells' Regt., Sept. 22 to Oct. 18, 1777 (ibid. p.86).

5. CATHARINE[2] ZILPAH WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. 20 December 1811 (1850 Michigan Census, Lenawee Co., p.599, age 38) probably McDonough Town, Chenango County, New York; d. 1 October 1879 Mason, Ingham County, Michigan (WELCH MS.) (No D/C was located, reported Mike Bryanton, Ingham County, Clerk, in a 28 February 1995 letter. Michigan death records date from 1867, but deaths were not always filed; m. 29 August 1829 Monroe County, NY (WELCH MS.) to HALLAM RICHARDS b. 1808 Vermont (1850 Census p.599). This family lived in Palmyra, Michigan.

Catharine Zilpah Wilcox's mother's maiden name was Catharine Randall, and her unusual middle name may be from Zilpah [a Biblical name] Randall, perhaps an aunt, b. 30 November 1768 Sharon, Connecticut, dau. of John Randall m. (2) Sarah Bates, in Frank Alfred Randall, Randall & Allied Families (Chicago: Raveret-Weber Ptg. Co., 1943), p.169.

Correspondence dated 30 November 1994 from Laura J. Bumpus, Chief Deputy Register of the Ingham County Michigan Probate Court to author showed neither a Will nor estate records for Catharine Zilpah Wilcox Richards.

According to the 1880 Michigan Census, Mason, Ingham County, p.477, daughter Emily Richards Vaughn and husband Micajah Vaughn lived on Elm Street (not numbered) with her widower father, Hallam Richards, whose wife had died the previous year. He told the census taker that his father was b. Connecticut, his mother b. Vermont (ibid., p.477).

Children of Hallam Richards and Catharine Zilpah Wilcox Richards:

20. i. Emily[3] Richards b.1831 Michigan (age 19 in 1850 Michigan Census, Lenawee County, p.599).
21. ii. Susan C. Richards b. 1838 Michigan. (ibid., age 12, p.599).
iii. Catharine M. Richards b.1843 Michigan. (ibid., age 7, p.599) named for her mother, Catharine Wilcox Richards and grandmother, Catharine Randall Wilcox.

6. RUSSELL[2] WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. probably McDonough, Chenango County, New York ca. 1815 (WELCH MS.); he died in Adrian, Michigan, no date given (ibid.). A Russell Wilcox, 35, (1850 Census St. Clair County, Michigan, p.412) lived unmarried at the home of Jeremiah Scoville in Port Huron, Michigan. Since Russell Wilcox, the son of Joel Wilcox, Sr. was born ca. 1815, the age was correct, as was the New York birthplace listed in that Census Record.

Correspondence dated 28 November 1994 from Martha Esquibel, Wills and Estates Clerk at Port Huron, St. Clair County, Michigan disclosed that their records were checked and contained no probate file regarding Russell Wilcox. A similar negative reply was posted 28 November 1994 from the Probate Court of Lenawee County, Michigan.

7. LEWIS[2] NEWMAN WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. ca. 1816 probably McDonough, Chenango County, New York (WELCH MS.); d. Bowling Green, Clay County, Indiana (ibid.); m. LOVINA PETERS (ibid.). The author hired Joyce Oehler, researcher at the Clay County Indiana Genealogical Society, P.O.Box 56, Center Point, Indiana 47840, who checked cemetery and other records and found neither Lewis nor Lovina Wilcox, as per her 14 April 1995 letter in response to author's query.

As to a Will of Lewis Wilcox or Lovina Peters Wilcox, a letter sent 13 December 1994 from the Clay County Clerk at Brazil, Indiana noted that records from 1848-1878 and from 1876-1890 had been searched, all with no result. The Lenawee County Michigan Probate Court's letter dated 28 November 1994 also gave a negative answer.

8. ABEL[2] P. WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. 6 November 1817 New York (WELCH MS.); d. 16 May 1864 (Tombstone has military insignia) Angola, Steuben County, Indiana (cemetery not named in Richard Welch's letter about research about Abel to Helen Carrier Roach[4] 26 January 1979; photocopy in possession of author); m. DELILAH JONES (WELCH MS.).

Steuben Circuit Court Clerk, Marilyn Carney, Angola, Indiana, wrote 21 December 1994 that no records were filed for Abel P. Wilcox. A negative reply sent 28 November 1994 came from the Probate Court of Lenawee County, Michigan.

Abel Wilcox, 32 b. Ohio, wife Nancy Wilcox, 26 b. NY, children: Philander Wilcox, 8, Olive Wilcox, 7, were found in 1850 Michigan Census Monroe County, Raisinville, p.676. An Abel in the 1860 Indiana Census Steuben County, p.535, age 49, b. Ohio, wife Nancy and Philander 19, Olive 17, et al., may be related, or even Abel P. Wilcox (1817-1864) himself. The Ohio birthplace and wife's name do not agree, but Michigan and Indiana are right and census ages do vary.

[4]Helen Carrier Roach, Sun City, Arizona & the author collaborated to find Richard Welch for consultation on this book by engaging professional tracers, Old Friends Information Services, One Camino Sobrante #21, Orinda, California 94563. They could not locate him.

9. SUSAN[2] BLACKMAN WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. *ca.*1820 (Illinois Death Certificate (hereinafter D/C) 1911 gave age as 91) b. Perinton, Ontario (now Monroe) County, New York; d. 26 March 1911 Chicago, Cook County, Illinois; D/C #26137, Registered #8496, lived in Illinois 7 years, 2 years in Chicago, home was at 4433 State Street, Chicago; buried Angola, Steuben County, Indiana; m. DANIEL B. GRIFFIN, M.D. b. ca. 1815 (age 35 in 1850 Indiana Census Steuben County, Fremont Township, p.129) b. Connecticut; d. prior to 1911, as Susan was listed as a widow at the time of her death.

Conjecture about the name Blackman in the Wilcox family pointed back to Sharon, Connecticut, perhaps where Susan's father Joel was born. Dr. Simeon Blackman came to Sharon in 1789 and represented the town in the legislature.

Another possibility was that Susan, who was born in Perinton, might have received her name from the daughter of Perinton's founder, Revolutionary soldier Glover/Grover Perrin, the first settler of Perinton in 1791, whose daughter's married name was Nancy Perrin Blackman.

Susan Blackman Wilcox married Daniel B. Griffin, M.D., one of the first doctors in the Fremont, Steuben County area. They lived in Brockville Village, Fremont Township #2, Steuben County, Indiana (1850 Census, p.129). Fremont Township was 38 N, Range 14 E, of the 2nd P.M. bounded on N by Branch County, Michigan, E by Clear Lake Township, S by Scott and York Townships, and W by Jamestown Township.

Henry Wells "Fremont Township" in Harvey W. Morley, 1955 History of Steuben County, Indiana, (1955) p.30: "Settlers around 1840 were...Dr. D.B. Griffin"; also "Dr. Griffin was the second doctor and he achieved success by using quinine for the cure of fever and ague, instead of roots and herbs" (ibid. p.88).

When Dr. Daniel B. Griffin came to Brockville, Steuben County, there were many Potawatomi Indians. Essentials such as salt cost the prohibitive sum of $10/barrel.

Before 1837 Brockville was called Willow Prairie, and kept that name until 1851, when the name was changed to Fremont, as the "Brookville" in Franklin County caused mistakes in handling mail due to the similar names.

A letter dated 21 December 1994 from the Clerk of the Steuben Circuit Court, Marilyn Carney, at Angola, Indiana, indicated that nothing was found in their probate records for Susan Blackman Wilcox Griffin or her husband.

Children of Dr. Daniel B. Griffin and Susan Blackman Wilcox Griffin:

i. Susan[3] E. Griffin b. 1842 Indiana (age 8 in 1850 Census Steuben County, Indiana, Brockville, Fremont Township #2, p.129) was named for her mother, Susan Blackman Wilcox Griffin.

ii. Ann Marion Griffin b. 1849 Indiana (age 1, ibid. p.129).

10. RANSOM[2] J. WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. ca. 1825 probably Perinton, Monroe County, New York (age 25 in 1850 Indiana Census, Fayette County, Harrison Township, p.216); d. Wabash, Indiana ? (WELCH MS.); m. (1) JULIA CHAPMAN (ibid.); m. (2) ELMYRA FERGUSON (DALE MS.).

Correspondence dated 30 November 1994 from Kelly Schenkel, Clerk, Wabash Circuit Court, Wabash, Indiana said no records were located for Ransom J. Wilcox or his spouse.

Ransom J. Wilcox's middle name was probably James since his sister Lydia Ann Wilcox McNair named her son Ransom James Irving McNair according to James Birtley McNair, McNair, McNear & McNeir Genealogies (Chicago: By the Author, 1923), p.180, hereinafter McNair Genealogy.

According to 1860 Census records (Wabash County, Noble Township, Indiana, p.159) Ransom J. Wilcox, a carpenter, lived with his wife Mary E. Wilcox [evidently E. stood for Elmyra], while his sister Lydia Ann Wilcox, q.v. now the wife of Eaton McNair, lived nearby (ibid. pp.158-159).

Children of Ransom J. Wilcox and (probably) Elmyra Ferguson Wilcox:

i. Anna[3] Wilcox b. 1856 Indiana (ibid. age 4, p.159).

ii. John M. Wilcox b. 1858 Indiana (ibid. age 2, p.159).

iii. Unnamed Son b. ca. April 1860 Indiana (ibid. age 2 months, p.159), (Census taken June 19, 1860).

11. LYDIA[2] ANN WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. ca. 1825-27 Perinton, Monroe County, New York (D/C shows place); d. 15 October 1882, 2nd Ward (D/C) Adrian, Michigan; m. EATON[3] ELIPHET McNAIR (William Penn[4], John[3], William[2], John[1]) of Adrian, Michigan (McNair, McNair Genealogy, pp.164,180).

The Death Certificate of Lydia McNair, 58, married, died of heart disease, Record #29, Vol. A, p. 276, was recorded 10 May 1883, Lenawee County Judicial Building, 425 N. Main Street, Lou Ann Bluntschly, County Clerk.

The Lenawee County Michigan Probate Court records showed no Will, as per their letter dated 28 November 1994.

According to 1860 Census records (Wabash County, Noble Township, Indiana, p.44) Eaton McNare [sic] age 35, b. New York and Lydia A. age 33, b. New York lived with their children two doors from Lydia Ann Wilcox McNair's brother, Ransom J. Wilcox and his family q.v.

Evidently Lydia Ann Wilcox McNair and her brother Ransom J. Wilcox were very fond of each other because Lydia Ann named her first son Ransom James Irving McNair to honor her brother Ransom. The McNair children's names were given in the McNair Genealogy, p.180. Ransom James Irving McNair's 1859 birthdate from his tombstone, Hunt Cemetery, Lenawee County, Michigan (author's visit 7 August 1994).

Children of Eaton McNair and Lydia Ann Wilcox McNair:

22. i. Mary[3] Alpha McNair b. ca. 1857-58 Michigan (age 2, 1860 Census p.44).

23. ii. Ada Isabella McNair b. ca. 1858-59 Michigan (age 1, ibid. p.45).

24. iii. Ransom James Irvin(g) McNair born 1859 (McNair Genealogies, p.180); tombstone (Not listed in the 1860 Census Wabash County, Noble Township, Indiana).

12. MARY[2] ELIZABETH WILCOX (Joel[1]) b. 22 January 1829 Perinton, Monroe County, New York (WELCH MS.); d. 8 April 1907 (D/C) LaFontaine, Wabash County, Indiana; buried near Lincolnville, Indiana; Death Certificate recorded in Wabash County Book 1899-1939, p.25, Local No. 81, Roann, Lagro, LaFontaine; m. 12 October 1851 Harrisburg, Fayette County, Indiana (WELCH MS.) to LEWIS DALE b. August 1831 Indiana (1850 Indiana Census, Fayette, p.217); Lewis Dale d. after 1907. Wabash Circuit Court Clerk, Kelly Schenkel, replied 30 November 1994 that no Will was found for Mary Dale.

The 1900 Census Wabash County, Lagro Township, Indiana, Vol. 80, E.D. 115, Sheet 1, Line 66, stated Lewis Dale's father was b. Virginia; mother b. North Carolina.

The Dale family descended from George Dale and Hannah Dale who went from Westmoreland County, Virginia to Kentucky in 1786. Son Alexander Dale b. 1786 trekked to Indiana in 1812, and settled in Fayette County, where he served as county commissioner and director of a canal company. Finally, he moved to Wabash County, Indiana, followed by several sons, including Hiram Dale, who represented Wabash County in the Indiana Legislature 1874-1875. Hiram Dale b. 30 July 1826 Fayette County, Indiana, d. 18 March 1918; m. Catherine Frost b. 4 April 1829 Putnam County, New York; d. 23 April 1916 Wabash County, Indiana. (Linda Robertson, Editor, Wabash County [Indiana] History Bicentennial Edition (Marceline, Mo.: 1976), p.324).

Mary E. Wilcox removed to Indiana in 1850 with her mother, sister and brother (Indiana Census Fayette County, Harrison Township, p.216) and lived just a few doors from Lewis Dale (ibid. p.217), b. Indiana, a blacksmith whose profession was listed as lumber merchant in 1870.

Lewis and Mary E. Wilcox Dale were located by reading the 1870 Census Wabash County, Indiana, Lagro Township, p.49. A decade later George, the eldest, had left home, but p.294 showed the full names of Alice, Charles and Ada I. Dale, who lived at home with their parents, Lewis and Mary E. Wilcox Dale.

Children of Lewis Dale[3] and Mary Elizabeth Wilcox Dale:

25. i. George[3] Dale b. 1855 Indiana. (1880 Census Wabash County, Indiana, Lagro Township, p.294).
ii. Alice Dale b.1857 Indiana (ibid. p.294).
iii. Charles Dale b.1861 Indiana (*ibid.*p.294).
26. iv. Ada I.Dale b.April 1868 Indiana (ibid,p.294).

THIRD GENERATION

13. Leap Year Day was the birthdate of MILES[3] MARK WILCOX (Aaron[2], Joel[1]) b. 29 February 1828 (Tombstone) New York; d. 26 July 1886 (Tombstone) Palmyra, Lenawee County, Michigan. The family had great fun joking that although Miles was the "oldest" child, he was also the "youngest" since he celebrated his birthday once every four years, because 1828 was a Leap Year.

A treasured early photograph dating to about the time of their marriage on Christmas Day, 1860 ([Wilcox Family] Holy Bible Containing the Old & New Testaments Translated Out of the Original Tongues with Cruden's Complete Concordance (Toledo, Ohio: U.S.B. Publishing Company, 1882), originally owned by Nettie Wilcox Howard [the calligraphy done all at the same time]; owned in 1995 by her grandson H. Robert Wood, Tulsa, Oklahoma, hereinafter WFB) showed Miles Mark Wilcox and Abigail Ann Luke Wilcox as a handsome couple. Miles had dark hair, chin whiskers and wore a dark suit and vest, a shirt with a high collar and a bow tie. Abigail, a beautiful young woman, was quietly elegant in a gown featuring flared three-quarter-length sleeves worn over a long-sleeved blouse pinned at the collar with a brooch (photo in possession of author).

14. HARVEY[3] HENDERSON WILCOX (Aaron[2], Joel[1]) called "The Founder of Hollywood" was b. ca. 1832 New York (age 18 in 1850 Census, Blissfield, Lenawee County, Michigan, p.373); d. 19 March 1891 California; bur. (1) Rosedale Cemetery, Los Angeles; (2) reinterred Hollywood Mausoleum 13 November 1922 according to Edwin O. Palmer, History of Hollywood, 1937, pp.66-67. Harvey H. Wilcox, a strapping 16-year-old six-footer, was stricken with paralysis and lost the use of his legs. Undaunted, he graduated with honors from Adrian College, Michigan, as per Zelda Cini & Bob Crane, with Peter H. Brown, Hollywood, Land and Legend [hereinafter Hollywood] (Westport, Connecticut: Arlington House, 1980), p.31; and earned tuition as a cobbler (Security Trust & Savings Bank, In the Valley of the Cahuengas, 5th Ed. (Los Angeles: Bank, 1924), p.373, hereinafter Cahuengas).

Harvey Wilcox looked self-confident in his photograph. He wore a suit jacket and vest with notched lapels, a gold watch fob, and a high-collared shirt with a narrow tie.

Harvey Wilcox, "The Founder of Hollywood" migrated to Bryan, Williams County, Ohio after college, where he was elected county recorder and was a prohibitionist. As per Cahuengas, 5th Ed., 1924, pp.13-17 he m. (1) ELLEN YOUNG

Harvey and Ellen Young Wilcox moved to Topeka, Kansas where he became rich, Cini & Crane, Hollywood, p.31. They often took hospital patients for a spin in a carriage drawn by their handsome white horses, Duke and Royal, but sadly, Ellen Young Wilcox's benevolent hospital and church work philanthropies were cut short when she died suddenly.

Three years later, Harvey married (Cahuengas, 5th Ed., 1924, p.13); (2) DAEIDA HARTELL b. 29 July 1862 Hicksville, Ohio (as per an undated ca. 1990 newspaper article in the Toledo Blade, by William Ferguson, a staff writer; copy in possession of author); d. 14 August 1914 (Cini & Crane, Hollywood, p.65). Harvey went to California in 1883, with his cherished steeds, Duke and Royal, and his coachman ensconced in a baggage car, playing checkers all the way. Daeida followed shortly thereafter.

Harvey's entrepreneurship and his belief in Hollywood, which was named by his wife, Daeida for the home of a friend (The Phoenix Gazette, Phoenix, Arizona, 8 January 1987, Section D, p.3, "That's Hollywood" by Liz Smith) were confirmed on 1 February 1887 when he registered a new 120-acre ranch with the county recorder, and christened it "Hollywood." Harvey made many astute land purchases, but the boom burst, and he died land poor in 1891.

Daeida Hartell Wilcox, every inch the aristocrat in her photograph, corresponded with Nettie Wilcox Howard, Harvey's niece. Daeida m. 1894 (2) Philo Judson Beveridge, son of a former Illinois governor and had four daughters, only two of whom lived to be adults. Marian Beveridge lived with her parents at 6427 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California, and married at St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood Wednesday 18 June 1914(?) Wilbur Watkins Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dudley Campbell, 810 South Alvarado Street as per an undated newspaper [probably Los Angeles] clipping in possession of the author which first belonged to Nettie Wilcox Howard. Mentioned was the other daughter, Phyllis Beveridge. Daeida's grandson David Brunson lived in Pacific Palisades, California in 1987, as per a People magazine article ca. 1987 wherein he quoted Daeida; a letter sent to Mr. Brunson by the author was returned unopened.

Sarah Wilcox Luke and her husband Elisha Luke's photographs are in the Luke section of this book, p.120.

Sarah Wilcox Luke's D/C Dist. #18 008989, Local Reg. #1798; informant: husband; father Aaron Wilcox b. New York; mother Azuba [minus the "h"] Wilcox b. New York; residence for 15 years was 1011 West 35th Street, Los Angeles, lived in California for 31 years.

Elisha Luke's D/C #22-030846 State Index 1289, Local Reg. #6169; information given by Mrs. Samuel Young, daughter [Rose Luke], who lived at 1030 West 35th Street, Los Angeles. The Young residence was on the street where her parents lived. Rose Luke Young stated that her father had lived with her for 4 years 5 months [since her mother had died]. Elisha's father was Elijah Luke.

Sarah Wilcox Luke and Elisha Luke were both buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Los Angeles (Rosedale Cemetery Records, Section J, Lot 95 Grave H2SW), along with Sarah's mother, Azuba[h] Mark Wilcox (1803-1888) (ibid. Grave 2SE).

Child of Elisha Luke and Sarah Wilcox Luke:

31. i. Rosetta[4] (Rose) Luke b.1856 Michigan (age 4 1860 US Census Lenawee County, Michigan, Ogden Township, p.213).

16. LEWIS[3] WILCOX (Aaron[2], Joel[1]) b. 4 (Tombstone) September 1836 twin of Luther Wilcox, both b. Ogden Township, Lenawee County, Michigan. Lewis Wilcox d. 3 July 1897 Dundee, Monroe County, Michigan; buried Zion U.B. Cemetery. Birth and death dates from tombstone (Bowen, Gravestone, 1940, 3:153).

Because the tombstones of Lewis and Luther Wilcox gave birthdates of 4 and 5 September, respectively, the question arose as to whether they were actually twins, as Luther's descendants claimed. Another branch of the family declared Lewis and Luther were a year and a day apart in age, with Lewis b. 4 September 1836 and Luther b. 5 September 1837.

The objective pursued by the author was to search for records which would give the ages of both Lewis and Luther during the same year, i.e. census and cemetery records.

(1) The 1850 Census, Michigan, Lenawee County, p.384, Aaron Wilcox Household, showed Lewis, 15 and Luther, 15.

(2) The 1860 Census, Michigan, Lenawee County, pp.79-80 Luther Wilcox, 23; Lewis was in Illinois (county unknown).

(3) The 1870 Census, Michigan, Lenawee County, p.11 showed Lewis, 33, and Luther, 33, next door to each other.

(4) The 1880 Census, Michigan, Lenawee County, p.321 showed only Lewis, 43. Luther had died 29 August 1879.

Lewis and Luther always gave identical ages, even though their ages were each inflated two years to 15 instead of 13 in 1850.

(5) Lewis's tombstone was carved "4 September 1836-3 July 1897" (Bowen, Gravestone 1940,3:153).

(6) The tombstone of Luther stated that he died 29 August 1879 ae. 42y.11m.24d. (ibid. 3:150). At his death he lacked one week of reaching his 43d birthday. 43 subtracted from 1879=1836. The question of twinship evidently arose because of a subtraction error. Tombstone carvers sometimes make mistakes as well. Also, it is possible that they were born several hours apart on different days.

Conclusion: Both Lewis Wilcox and Luther Wilcox were born in 1836; therefore they were twins.

Lewis m. HARRIET M. _____ b. 10 March 1838 Connecticut d. 28 October 1884 Ogden Township, Lenawee County, Michigan. 1880 Census, Michigan, p.321 stated Harriet's father b. England, mother b. Connecticut.

Lewis was a Methodist minister and owned a farm next to Elisha Luke in Sec. 30, Ogden Township. LCDeeds, Lib.55, p.406 a transaction on October 12, 1859 between Aaron Wilcox, Grantor to Lewis Wilcox, Grantee, Section 31 T7S R4E, 55 acres NE corner E 1/2 of SW was followed by a transfer in 1860, in which the above land was conveyed by Lewis Wilcox, Grantor to Smith Randolph, in Liber 55, p. 408. Finally, in 1866, Liber 77, p. 617 showed Luther Wilcox, Grantor, to Lewis Wilcox, Section 29 T8S R4E.

Both Lewis and Harriet Wilcox were buried at the Zion U.B. (United Brethren) Cemetery. The cemetery was laid out in the north of Ogden Township Sec. 3, near Ogden Center, (Bowen, Gravestone, 3:153).

Children of Lewis Wilcox and Harriet M. Wilcox (As per 1880 Census Lenawee County, Michigan, p.321, ages 19 & 14):

i. Horace[4] Wilcox b. 1861 Illinois [see p.31, his father Lewis, ¶ 5, (2)].
ii. Clara Wilcox b. 1866 Michigan.

17. LUTHER[3] WILCOX (Aaron[2], Joel[1]) b. 5(?) September 1836 (Tombstone) Ogden Township, Lenawee County, Michigan, twin of Lewis. Luther d. 29 August 1879 Ogden, Michigan, ae. 42y.11m.24d. (Bowen, Gravestone, 3:150). Luther and his twin Lewis lived next door to each other (1870 Census, p.11 each 33 years) although from their tombstones it appears that one was born the 4th, the other 5th September.

During the Civil War, in 1862, Horace Wilcox, age 19, enlisted in Company F, Fourth Michigan Cavalry as private, and later was made corporal. He participated in many bloody battles throughout Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia, including battles of Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge and Chickamauga. At the end of the Civil War he was at the surrender of Atlanta. Back home again in Michigan, 1865 LCDeeds, Lib.73, p.258, disclosed the names of Edwin Welch, Grantor, to Horace Wilcox, Section 34 T7S R4E. Horace's daughter, Jennie May Wilcox b. 1866, married into the Welch family. Horace Wilcox received education in Ogden and Palmyra schools and the Raisin Institute; was a teacher, superintendent, Congregational Church member, a Republican and a farmer. (Bonner, Memoirs 2:721-722).

Children of Horace Wilcox and Amanda McCourtie Wilcox (Place of birth in 1870 Census; exact dates from WELCH MS.); names also mentioned in Bonner, Memoirs, 2:722):

41. i. Jennie[4] May Wilcox b. 17 September 1866 Michigan (1870 Census of Lenawee County, Michigan, p.43).
42. ii. Edith Louise Wilcox b. 16 April 1868 Michigan (ibid. p.43).
43. iii. Harry Dickens Wilcox b. 27 March 1870 Michigan (ibid. p.43).

20. EMILY[3] RICHARDS (Catharine[2] Wilcox, Joel[1]) b. 1831 Michigan (1850 Census Lenawee County, Michigan, p.599); m. MICAJAH VAUGHN b. ca. 1817 New York. In the 1880 Census Ingham County, Michigan, p.477, Emily and Micajah lived on Elm Street (not numbered), Mason, Michigan, with Emily's widowed father, Hallam Richards. Micajah was a farmer.

Micajah Vaughn was an early settler of Ingham County and was mentioned by Mrs. Franc L. Adams, Pioneer History of Ingham County [Michigan], (Lansing, Michigan: Wynkoop Hallenbeck Crawford Company, Printers, 1923), I:93, and was listed accordingly: "those who came (to Ingham County) between 1840-45 were...Micajah Vaughn."

Micajah Vaughn was named a "principal officer of the township" according to Samuel W. Durant, History of Ingham and Eaton Counties, Michigan, (Philadelphia: D. W. Ensign & Co., J.P. Lippincott Press, 1880), p.222, when Micajah became Supervisor in 1870. Micajah Vaughn was named a member of the Pioneer Society of Ingham County, organized at the Mason court house 28 May 1872 (ibid. pp.104-105).

In those days homes were opened to schoolteachers who "boarded around" as they taught in picturesque old log school houses.

21. SUSAN[3] C. RICHARDS (Catharine[2] Wilcox, Joel[1]) b. 1 November 1837 Michigan (1850 Census, Lenawee County, Michigan, p.599); d. 29 October 1852 ae. 14y.11m.29d.

Susan Richards, named for her mother's sister, Susan Blackman Wilcox Griffin, died during her early teen years and was buried in Palmyra Township in the Crane Cemetery, originally called Old Friends' Burying Ground, Sec. 18, situated on US 223 or M 34 from that road. There was once a church, now long gone, located at the site, but the cemetery remained (Bowen, Gravestone, 1937, 2:174).

Marriage Notice in Adrian Daily Times, 29 December 1887 (clipping in possession of author).

Dr. Walter H. Howard was born 16 June 1857 Toledo, Ohio (old handwritten Howard Family Record owned by H. Robert Wood and Harold S. Wood of Tulsa, Oklahoma); d. 30 May 1934 Washington, D.C.; D/C #359745 filed in District of Columbia; wife stated his parents were William Howard b. Ohio, & Elsie F. Partridge. The Evening Star and The Washington Post, Washington, D.C. newspapers, May 31, 1934 and June 1, 1934, printed five obituaries, clippings in possession of the author. His Will #46925, District of Columbia is at Register of Wills, Probate Court Clerk, 20 July 1934. Named were wife Nettie and daughter Lela Howard Wood (copy of Will in possession of the author).

Both Nettie Wilcox Howard and Dr. Walter Henry Howard were interred in Rose Hill Mausoleum, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Nettie Wilcox attended Adrian College, Adrian, Michigan, and was a member (Ex-1893) of Delta Delta Delta sorority, Bessie Leach Priddy, comp., Amy Olgen Parmelee and R. Louise Finch, editors Delta Delta Delta 1888-1907 (Galesburg, Illinois: Mail Printing Co., 1907), p. 216.

DR. WALTER HENRY HOWARD
B.S., M.S., Ph.B., Ph.D.

Dr. Walter H. Howard graduated cum laude from Adrian College, earning the degrees of bachelor of science, master of science, bachelor of philosophy, & doctor of philosophy, then pursued post-graduate work in chemistry at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts. He was a professor of physics and chemistry at Adrian College (obituary 1934).

In his undergraduate days Walter Howard was President (Worthy Praestes) of Beta Iota Chapter of Delta Tau Delta at the time the national society withdrew the chapter's charter from Adrian College, stated Robert L. Hartford, Delta Tau Delta Fraternity Historian, "The Demise of Beta Iota" Rainbow of Delta Tau Delta, V.113, #2, (Winter 1989), pp.12-13.

After Delta Tau Delta left the Adrian College campus, Sigma Alpha Epsilon was installed, and Walter Howard was initiated into S.A.E. and served as its chapter president. Being initiated into two national college fraternities is rare, and to have served as chapter president of two national fraternities is even more unusual.

Bessie Leach Priddy, Comp., A Detailed Record of Delta Delta Delta 1888-1931, (Menasha, Wisconsin: George Banta Pub. Co., 1931), pp.378-379, noted that Adrian College came from the work of Dr. Asa Mahan, first president of Oberlin College, who moved a Wesleyan college founded in 1849 in Leona, Michigan to Adrian, Michigan in 1859. A very early co-educational institution in the United States, Adrian College was taken over in 1868 by the Methodist Protestant denomination, but was operated on nonsectarian principles.

RICHARD WARREN

Mayflower Passenger, 1620

Dr. Howard's ancestry dated back to the Mayflower to Richard Warren. Dr. Howard's daughter Lela Howard Wood (#29228-384) became a member of the Oklahoma Society of Mayflower Descendants. His two great-granddaughters, Dr. Diandra Dye Wood (christened Barbara) (#29229-385)and Paula Dye Wood Neal(#33402-443) and his two great-great-grandchildren, Jordan Seabury Neal (#53411-667) and Harrison Lucas Neal (#54851-682)all became life members of the Oklahoma Society of Mayflower Descendants through his ancestor Richard Warren. The Warren lineage is found at pp.89-90.

GOVERNOR JAMES BISHOP

Colonial Governor of Connecticut (1683-1684)

Dr. Howard's lineage included Governor James Bishop (List of Colonial Governors Prior to 1776 ([n.p.]: pub. by The Order of Descendants of Colonial Governors, 1989).

THOMAS HOWARD (1758-1825)

Revolutionary War Soldier, Pennsylvania.

Thomas Howard served in Pennsylvania during the Revolution (Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd.Series, Vol.XXIII, p.781) then moved to Seneca Lake, near Geneva, New York; b. 15 November 1758; d. 25 May 1825 Gilead (Grand Rapids) Ohio; m. 17 March 1783 at Mifflin, Pennsylvania Elizabeth Armstrong b. 14 January 1761; d. 17 September 1810 at Benton, Yates County, New York. Thomas Howard, 62, moved to the "Ohio Country" in 1820, riding horseback all the way from Yates County to Buffalo. From there the Howards sailed across Lake Erie on a thirty-ton schooner enduring a stormy 26-day voyage, finally settling in Fulton County, Ohio. Data in H.S. Knapp, History of the Maumee Valley, Ohio, (Toledo: Slade Mammoth Printing, 1872), pp.649-650.

SGT. TIMOTHY CRUTTENDEN

Revolutionary War Soldier

Musician, Orderly Sergeant, Massachusetts

Capt. Belding's Co., Col. Rossiter's Regt.

Timothy[5] Cruttenden (Hull[4], Thomas[3], Abraham, Jr.[2], Abraham[1]) great-grandfather of Dr. Walter Howard, b. 27 January 1747 Guilford, Connecticut; d. 22 September 1832 Michigan; bur. Saline, Michigan; m. (1) Huldah Adams; m.(2) Lucy Thompson. (Alvan Talcott, Families of Early Guilford, Connecticut, (Baltimore: Genealogical Pub. Co., 1984), p.264). Timothy Cruttenden was Town Representative 1802-1803 of Poultney, Vermont, Joseph Joslin, Barnes Frisbie, Frederick Ruggles,

History of Poultney, Vermont (Poultney: 1875), Appendix; and a Revolutionary War Soldier (D.A.R. Patriot Index: 1966, p.164) served in the siege of Quebec and at the capture of Burgoyne. His is the oldest grave in Saline Cemetery, according to The Genealogical Society of Washtenaw Co., Michigan, Cemetery Inscriptions of Saline Township, Washtenaw County, (Ann Arbor: Pub. by Society, 1985), p.17. Author is in possession of copy of his Will filed 23 April 1845, Liber 27, p.340, Washtenaw County.

About 1900 Dr. Walter H. Howard resigned from Adrian College due to deafness and accepted a position as Patent Examiner in the US Patent Office, Washington, D.C. His best friend in the capital was Dr. Charles G. Abbot, director of the astrophysical laboratory and Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, a scientist whose specialty was solar radiation. Dr. and Mrs. Abbot and Dr. and Mrs. Howard were great friends, and often vacationed together.

Lela Howard attended George Washington University, Washington, D.C., was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority; studied to be a concert pianist, and was a 1917 graduate of the Washington College of Music, receiving a Piano Diploma. Lela was a very talented musician, and in 1910 composed, published, and copyrighted a piece of music entitled "The Arrow" a march-two step dedicated to Pi Beta Phi sorority. The Pi Beta Phi pin is a golden arrow. The publisher was H. Kirkus Dugdale Company, 14th & You Streets, Washington, D.C. A copy of the sheet music is owned by the author.

ADRIAN, MICHIGAN
House where Lela Howard was born on Scott Street.

After her marriage and for the rest of her life Lela's interest in music never waned. She was a member in Tulsa of the Wednesday Morning Musicale and the Hyechka (Creek Indian word for music) Club, both musical societies, with the requirement for membership being that technical proficiency be maintained so that twice a year, a polished performance was presented in recital to the members, all musicians. Lela's Steinway grand piano occupied a place of honor in her Tulsa living room, and she played it often.

LELA HOWARD WOOD

Piano

Mr. Fabian, 1904-5-6-7, 1908-9, 1916-17

Lela Howard Wood was a member of the Oklahoma Society of Mayflower Descendants (her ancestor was Richard Warren); the Daughters of the American Colonists; and was a past Regent of the Tulsa Chapter of the D.A.R. She was a member of the Boys Home Women's Association; Tulsa Garden Club; Knife and Fork Club; and the Petroleum Club. She and her husband were both members of the First Presbyterian Church.

Robert Harrison Wood[3] (Virgil[2] Andrew, M.D., James R.[1], Confederate Soldier) was born 20 March 1887 Wallaceburg, Hempstead County, Arkansas (D/C #006699, Local #738); d. 3 April 1956 Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma (ibid.). Lela and Robert Wood were entombed at Rose Hill Cemetery in Tulsa.

Robert Harrison Wood was a member of an old Southern family. His great-grandparents Wood were both born in Virginia (1880 Census, Hempstead County, Arkansas #161/162, James Wood) and his great-grandmother Anna (maiden name not known) Wood, b. ca. 1785-1790; d. 3 July 1865 Hempstead County, Arkansas, was buried in the same cemetery as James R. Wood, and Mary Ann Turner Wood. (Visit of author to Wellsville Church Cemetery, Blevins [formerly Wallaceburg], Hempstead County, Arkansas, 1955.)

JAMES R. WOOD (1826-1908)
Confederate Soldier, Arkansas

James R. Wood b. ca. 1826 in South Carolina; d. 3 February 1908 (Tombstone) Hempstead County, Arkansas; m. ca. 1846 to Mary Ann Turner, b. 1830 Georgia, d. 1890 (Tombstone) Hempstead County, Arkansas, John Sumner Wood, Wood Family Index, (n.p.: Garrett & Massie Press, 1966), pp. 317, 540. Mary Ann Turner Wood belonged to the Baptist Church, while James R. Wood was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, Portrait & Biographical Record of Oklahoma, (Chicago: Chapman Publishing Co., 1901), pp.1273-1274, a Mason and a Confederate soldier (Certification of Confederate Service, Record 48454 [5242], Confederate Records, Arkansas History Commission, Old State House, Little Rock, Arkansas). He enlisted from Hope, Hempstead County, Arkansas in Co. D, 19th Infantry Regiment, under Col. D.W. Carroll and Capt. Charles Lynch; Pension application approved 6 August 1901.

VIRGIL ANDREW WOOD, M.D.
Member Fifth Territorial Legislature, Oklahoma

Dr. Virgil Andrew Wood[2] (James R.[1]) b. 12 August 1849 Cass (now Bartow) County, Georgia; d. 18 March 1925 (D/C #36250) Blackwell, Oklahoma; m. 4 October 1874 Ozan, Hempstead County, Arkansas Sarah Catherine Robins (Sallie), b. 3 November 1855 Dalton, Georgia; d. 21 September 1932 (D/C #72253) Tulsa, Oklahoma; both bur. I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Blackwell, Oklahoma. Dr. Wood referred to himself as a "Forty-niner" (b. 1849). His family migrated from Georgia via Texas to Arkansas in 1853. He attended St. John's College, and later graduated from the Kentucky School of Medicine, Louisville, as stated in History of Arkansas & Memoirs of Southern Arkansas (Chicago: Goodspeed, 1890), p. 453.

At the opening of Oklahoma Territory, on April 22, 1889, Dr. Virgil Andrew Wood made "The Run" into the territory riding on a big white horse. At the invitation of the Editor of the Visitor, a newspaper published at Wallaceburg (now Blevins) Arkansas, Dr. Wood wrote articles which were published during April, May and June 1889 in the newspaper describing the "Sooners" who illegally staked out their claims prior to the opening of the border, and about the lawlessness rampant in the tent town of Oklahoma City, which had sprung up overnight, and where in his capacity as a doctor, he treated numerous gunshot victims (copies of his Visitor articles in possession of the author).

Dr. Wood also made the run into the Cherokee Strip, eventually settling in Blackwell where he was Garfield County physician; a Deacon in the Baptist Church; a Mason like his father; and for many years was president of the Board of Education, Homer S. Chambers, The Enduring Rock, (Blackwell [Oklahoma]: Blackwell Publications, 1954) p.87.

Dr. Wood was elected a member of the 5th Territorial Legislature of Oklahoma noted in Oklahoma Red Book, 2 Volumes, (Tulsa: Democrat Printing Co., 1899), picture of members of 5th Legislature, 1:facing 288.

ROBERT HARRISON WOOD (1887-1956)

Petroleum Geologist, College Football Player

Robert[3] Harrison Wood (Virgil[2], James[1] R.) b. 20 March 1887 Wallaceburg (now Blevins) Arkansas; d. 3 April 1956 Tulsa, Oklahoma (p.52, ¶2);m.14 March 1917 Lela Howard q.v.

Robert Harrison Wood's first name honored his father's younger brother, Robert Ernest Wood, Esq. who was the first Assistant Attorney General of Oklahoma and was a member of the 6th Territorial Legislature of Oklahoma (Oklahoma Red Book, picture of members 6th Territorial Legislature 1901 1:facing 320); Robert Harrison Wood's middle name "Harrison" honored his mother's brother, Harrison Robins (1849-1891), who in turn was named for another uncle, Harrison Turner. Robert Harrison Wood's only great grandson was born on his great grandfather's birthday, 20 March 1989 and was named in his honor, Harrison Lucas Neal.

Robert H. Wood was graduated from the University of Oklahoma, Norman, with a B.A. degree in Geology and became president of Broswood Oil Company, Tulsa, joined by his three brothers, all graduates of the University of Oklahoma, Virgil Wood and Dudley Wood, both geologists, and Homa Wood, a lawyer, as partners. In college Robert H. Wood was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity (Errett R. Newby, Compiler, Sigma Nu Fraternity, University of Oklahoma, #75, Delta Epsilon Chapter History, (March-November 1966), pp.40-42) as were his brothers. Their younger sisters joined Pi Beta Phi sorority at the University of Oklahoma.

A thrilling and historic football play was made by Robert H. Wood in the 1909 season during the Oklahoma-Washburn game when he caught the ball on the two-yard line and ran 108 yards for a touchdown. Shortly thereafter football fields were shortened from 110 to 100 yards, thereby making his feat impossible to duplicate, wrote Harold Keith in Oklahoma Kickoff, (Norman, Oklahoma: University of Oklahoma Press, 1978), pp. 189-190.

Robert H. Wood began his career with the Geological Survey in Washington, D.C.; was President of the Tulsa Geological Society, affiliate of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists; member of A.A.P.G.; Independent Petroleum Association of America; Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association; Tulsa Club; and was a charter member and first Treasurer of the Petroleum Club of Tulsa; Tulsa Board of Education member; Deacon of the First Presbyterian Church; President of the Knife and Fork Club; and was on the Board of Directors of the Tulsa Boys' Home.

98. DR. DIANDRA[7] DYE WOOD (Christened BARBARA DYE WOOD) (H. Robert[6] Wood, Lela[5] Howard, Nettie[4] Wilcox, Miles[3], Aaron[2], Joel[1]) b. 20 November 1945 Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma (B/C #92144, State File #3756, Reg. #72). s.p.

Diandra attended Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Virginia for three years. Randolph-Macon was the college attended by her aunt Ailene Wood, who joined Pi Beta Phi sorority there; however, sororities had been removed from the campus when Diandra matriculated, so she did not join a sorority as had her mother, Dyane Dye Wood, Delta Gamma, her grandmother, Lela Howard Wood, Pi Beta Phi, her great-grandmother, Nettie Wilcox Howard, Delta Delta Delta, and her sister, Paula Wood, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Diandra was graduated from the University of Tulsa. After flight training she became a flight attendant for American Airlines, but later returned to graduate school, Palmer School of Chiropractic, Sunnyvale, California, where she earned a Doctor of Chiropractic degree cum laude.

Diandra was a debutante at the Tulsa Opera Ball, and became a life member of the Oklahoma Society of Mayflower Descendants (#29229/385) through her ancestor Richard Warren.

99. PAULA[7] DYE WOOD (H. Robert[6] Wood, Lela[5] Howard, Nettie[4] Wilcox, Miles[3], Aaron[2], Joel[1]) b. 30 June 1950 Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma (B/C #435 50 State File #024677, Local Reg.File #2511).

Paula attended the University of Colorado at Boulder her freshman year and was initiated into Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, following in the panhellenic footsteps of her mother, Dyane Dye Wood, Delta Gamma; grandmother, Lela Howard Wood, Pi Beta Phi, and great-grandmother, Nettie Wilcox Howard, Delta Delta Delta. Her sophomore year was at Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, New York, and she graduated at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, summa cum laude in 1975 with an A.B. degree and was named to Phi Delta Kappa honorary education society and the Rutgers Honor Society. She taught English at Morristown High School, New Jersey, was granted tenure, but returned to Tulsa and became president of a travel agency. Paula made her debut at the Tulsa Opera Ball, and was named a life member of the Oklahoma Society of Mayflower Descendants (#33402/403) through her ancestor Richard Warren.

In Tulsa's Unitarian Church in 1986 Paula m. (M/C Lib.443, p.77, Tulsa County, Oklahoma) GARY LUCAS NEAL, ESQ., a lawyer who served in the Navy during the Viet Nam War, b. 27 September 1946 Lompoc, Santa Barbara County, California (B/C #4254, Reg. #136) son of a World War II veteran Willie[3] Ray Neal (Walter[2] A. Jordan Seabury Neal's middle name traces to John[1] Seabury via: THE SEABURY-PARTRIDGE FAMILIES

James[5] Partridge ([4] above) m. Thankful Stevens;
George[4] Partridge m. Hannah Foster, Partridge, Partridge Genealogy, p.16);
Hannah[3] Seabury m. John Partridge, Arthur James Weiss, New-England Kemps (Troy, N.Y.:1904) pp.133, 191;
Samuel[2] Seabury, a physician, b. 10 December 1640 Boston; m. 9 November 1660 Patience Kemp ibid. p.24;
John[1] SEABURY m. Grace ___ Seabury, Arthur Adams "The Seabury Family" Historical Magazine of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Vol.III, No.3, (September 1934), p.123.

Interestingly, Hannah[3] Seabury, was the daughter of Patience Kemp Seabury, whose mother Elizabeth Partridge Kemp was the daughter of the Rev. Ralph Partridge, A.M., baptized Sutton Valence, Kent, England, 12 April 1579, Son of the Reverend Thomas Partridge. Ralph Partridge received his A.B. degree from Trinity College, Cambridge University 1599/1600, and his A.M. degree in 1603. In 1625 he sailed to New England with his wife Patience and two daughters, Elizabeth and Mary, and settled in Duxbury, Massachusetts, where he was ordained in 1637. According to Frederick Lewis Weis, The Colonial Clergy and the Colonial Churches

140. HARRISON[8] LUCAS NEAL (Paula[7] D. Wood, H. Robert[6] Wood, Lela[5] Howard, Nettie[4] Wilcox, Miles[3], Aaron[2], Joel[1]) b. 20 March 1989 Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma (B/C #135-89-010162).

Harrison Lucas Neal received his first and middle names through two ancestral lines. Because he was born on 20 March 1989, exactly 102 years after his mother's paternal grandfather, Robert Harrison Wood q.v. was born on 20 March 1887, the name Harrison was in honor of his great-grandfather Wood whose name Harrison was from his mother Sarah Robins Wood's brother, [John] Harrison Robins, of Georgia and Arkansas. [John] Harrison Robins, in turn, was named for his mother Sarah Turner Robins's brother Harrison Turner, of South Carolina, Georgia and Kentucky.

Lucas is the middle name of Harrison's father, Gary Lucas Neal, whose mother's maiden name was Pearl Lucas.

UNPLACED WILCOX COUSINS

Descendants of the Miles[3] Mark Wilcox branch of the family kept in the family photograph album a Certificate of Manifestations of Sympathy and Esteem in Memory of LAVERGNE H. WILCOX who died during the Spanish-American War. The exact cousinship connection has been lost, but Nettie Wilcox Howard (1865-1942) was proud of "Cousin" Lavergne's part in that war. His lineage was in Illustrated History & Biographical Record of Lenawee County, Michigan by J.I. Knapp & R.I. Bonner, Adrian, Michigan: 1903, pp. 194-196. Family buried Oakwood Cemetery, Adrian, Block 21, Lot 75.

HENRY[1] WILCOX b. Westminster, Vermont 14 November 1812; d. 2 December 1897; m. ELMINA ROBERTS, dau. Reuben & Mary Harrison Roberts. Henry's father (1st name unknown) drowned in the Connecticut River in 1817. The family moved to Mt. Morris, New York, then finally settled in Adrian in 1852.

Child of Henry Wilcox and Elmina Roberts Wilcox:

iv. Clarence E. Wilcox b. 14 December 1880, Adrian.
v. Vera E. Wilcox b. 13 June 1882 Adrian, Michigan.

CERTIFICATE OF MANIFESTATIONS OF SYMPATHY AND ESTEEM SENT TO THE FAMILY OF LAVERGNE H. WILCOX CO. B, 31st MICHIGAN INFANTRY

Courtesy of Oleeta Galeener Hatchett

At a meeting of the active and ex-members of Co. B, held at the armory Sept. 10, 1898, the following resolutions were drawn and adopted in memory of

Comrade Lavergne H. Wilcox, Who died while in the active service of his country at Camp Poland, Knarville, Tenn. Sept. 9, 1898.

Whereas, We are to-day forcibly reminded that our country has been, and is now, in a state of war, that for humanity's sake, and believing that we are our brother's keeper, and that our nation is its brother's keeper, we have engaged in a struggle for freedom and liberty with a sister nation, and that this struggle has cost thousands of lives and uncountable treasure, that it was necessary to expend these lives and this treasure in order to protect other lives and other treasure. We are brought face to face with the havoc and horrors of war by the seeming untimely death of our comrade, Lavergne H. Wilcox, who has anxiously and willingly laid his life upon his country's alter for humanity's sake and his country's honor. And while he was not permitted to go with Dewey, Shafter, Schley or Sampson, yet in the words of our own General Alger, "The soldier that served in the late war with Spain is not a child; he is a hero. It matters not whether he served at Manila, Santiago or in the great camps. All honor to the men who have not crossed the seas. They are as patriotic as those to whom it was permitted. When the history of the war is written it will be recorded that there was no more patriotic outburst of feeling than came from these men." His record as a soldier and honorable member of Co. B, Thirty-first Michigan U.S. Volunteers is creditable in every respect. In the words of Captain Holloway, "Private Wilcox was a young man of extraordinarily good habits. He was an excellent soldier, always ready and willing to perform any duty required of him," but as is often the case, "Death loves a shining mark," and our comrade is the first member of Co. B to be called into the presence of our heavenly Father by the God of Battles and the God of Peace. Feeling deeply our loss, may it be

Resolved, First— That we tender to his father, mother, sisters, brother and other relatives and friends our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of grief.

Second— That we commemorate his virtues and praise his unbounded patriotism, his uncomplaining spirit, even when weakened by disease and suffering.

Third— That we will remember his manly qualities and sterling integrity as a worthy keepsake from a worthy comrade and friend.

Fourth— That a copy of these resolutions and preamble be furnished the family, and that they be spread upon our records and published in the Adrian papers.

Sargt. A. C. Brown,
R. Alfred Bury,
Committee on resolutions.

The author would greatly appreciate information as to the relationship of Henry Wilcox (1812-1897) to Joel[1] Wilcox.

THE LUKE GENEALOGY

FIRST GENERATION

The name LUKE or LUYCK may be of English or of Dutch origin. From the records[38] the first verified Luke in our line was:

JOHN LUKE[39]

Revolutionary War Soldier, New Jersey

1. JOHN[1] LUKE, a Revolutionary soldier, b. 2 November 1761 Woodbridge, Middlesex County, New Jersey (date and place given by John Luke himself in his Revolutionary War Service Pension Affidavit #S4582, 25 June 1833; Certificate filed 1833 Wayne County, Ohio, Book E, Vol. 8, p.118); he said his birth record was in a family Bible he gave to his son, whose house, with the Bible, later went up in flames. John[1] was said to be the son of William Luke & Catherine Mundy. "Mundy" comes from the French name DeMontaye. Will of Nicholas Mundy [Liber B, p.574, Trenton, New Jersey, 1734] mentioned dau. Mary Luke wife of Henry, probably the parents of William Luke. Will of John Mundy, Sr. Middlesex County, [Liber L, p.235, 1774] named dau. Catherine Luke, wife of William, probably parents of John[1] Luke; John d. 7 June 1835 Ohio, D.A.R. Patriot Index, II, (Washington, D.C.: D.A.R. 1966), p.1858; John was said to be buried in Canaan Baptist Church Cemetery, Wayne County, Ohio, as Charles Rigdon, witness to John's pension record, was a [38]Luke Family Records [hereinafter LFR]. The author first became interested in the Luke family in the 1950s, and made several summer Luke research trips to Michigan and Ohio where she consulted with Ruth Luke Ries of Metamora, Ohio, who subsequently gathered information about the Michigan and Ohio descendants of Elijah[2] Luke over a period of years. In 1995, Kenneth E. Luke of Mobile, Alabama and Doris Faye Muller of Tyndall, South Dakota were contacted. Kenneth Luke had compiled and in 1995 loaned to the author an unpublished 227-page manuscript (author has copy) in four parts: I. 14 pages about John[1] Luke, by Ruth Luke Ries (Elijah[2]); Lawrence Luke of Birmingham, Michigan (David[2]); and Faye Muller (Azel[2]); II. 34 pages (David[2]); III. 136 pages by Faye Muller (Azel[2]) who sent additional data to the author; and IV. 43 pages by Kenneth Luke (John[2]). The most complete lineage used herewith was of Elijah[2] Luke, compiled by Ruth Ries and the author. Abstracted for inclusion were direct lines only of Kenneth Luke & Faye Muller, as they may one day write Luke genealogies with their extensive data. Some Luke family documentation was gathered from family Bibles, church records, tombstones, and present-day members of the family, i.e. 31 pages of information compiled by Ruth Luke Ries and handed out at the 1978 Luke Family Reunion, data incorporated here to preserve it. Names of sources are given. Author has copy of Luke Reunion data.

John Luke m. ca. 1784-85 (1) MARGARET _____; b. 29 April 1762 New Jersey(LFR); d. ca. 1795 (LFR); they joined the Scotch Plains Baptist Church, New Jersey 10 June 1787; Margaret probably was buried in the church cemetery (LFR).

John[1] Luke m. (2) 11 December 1796 Philadelphia at Old Swede's Church (church marriage record) MARGRET FRENCE[40] b. 1781[40]; dau. John Frence and Nancy Sterling Frence; she d. prior to 1830, as she was missing in 1830 Stark County, Ohio Census (Vol.15, M19, Roll 140, p.20), while John was in his son Elijah's household in Paris Township.

In his Revolutionary War pension application, John stated he lived in Middlesex County, New Jersey until 1796 then went to Shamokin, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. In 1823 he went to Stark County, Ohio. John d. 7 June 1835 Wooster, Wayne County, Ohio. His pension stopped, but no Will was found in Wayne County.

In his Revolutionary War Service Pension Affidavit John Luke stated that he enlisted November 1776 in Capt. Dunham's Company Jersey Militia, Col. Frelinghuysen's Regiment as a Minute Man, served one month after going to Elizabethtown to join the regular army under General Sullivan, crossed to Staten Island, engaged in a skirmish with the British, took prisoners, and returned to Woodbridge. His record covered from 1776 to 1778 and he served a month in Capt. Manning's Company, assigned as guard on the Jersey shore. Later that summer he served one month in Capt. Ross's Company, Col. Webster's Regiment and marched to New Brunswick, Princeton, Philadelphia and Monmouth, where he fell ill and returned home.

In the fall he was in Capt. Seaborn's Company for a month, and spent two months in Capt. Dunn's Company at Woodbridge the following spring. The British encamped at Elizabethtown that summer and he served another month there under Captain Ross; a month in Capt. Randall's Company that fall; then two months in Capt. Freeman's Company in the spring. In the fall, under Captain Dunham, there was a skirmish with British soldiers from Staten Island, while John Luke was on duty guarding the shore at Woodbridge, but the enemy soldiers were immediately driven back.

John Luke went to Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, in 1796 and lived near Elysburg until 1823, then to eastern Ohio, and in the 1830 Census Stark County (Vol.15, M19, Roll 140, p.20) lived in the household of son Elijah[2] Luke.

Collection of the author

A cherished photograph of Abigail Barton Luke in the possession of the author was probably taken in the 1850s. It was fashionable then for older and conservative women to wear frilly white caps with wide ribbons called lappets hanging down at the sides. Her blue eyes gazed directly into the camera and her still-dark hair was parted in the middle. She held her glasses in her hand, and wore a dark dress with a full skirt, white collar and sleeves gathered into a cuff. She was seated in a Gothic Revival chair dating to about 1850, evidence of the romantic style that swept America from 1840 to 1870, and was an example of the cathedral look in carved furniture popular in years predating the Civil War.

CAPTAIN ELISHA BARTON 1729-1823
Revolutionary War Soldier, New Jersey

Abigail Barton Luke was the daughter of Noah Barton b. 23 November 1764 Hunterdon County, New Jersey (NEHGR [July 1953] CVII:212); d. 26 June 1829 Shamokin, Pennsylvania (ibid.); m. 25 September 1791 Mary Cooley, as per Mortimer Elwyn Cooley with Collaborators Lyman Edgar & Ernest Linwood Cooley, Compiled by Vivien Bulloch Cooley, Cooley Genealogy (Rutland, Vermont: Tuttle Publishing Co., 1941), p.912; Mary Cooley b. 4 October 1772 (ibid.); d. 22 October 1847 Shamokin (ibid.) Noah was the son of Captain Elisha Barton b. 5 October 1729 (NEHGR [January 1953] CVII:50) Hopewell, Hunterdon County, New Jersey; d. 31 March 1823 Amwell, same county, ae. 93y.5m.26d; Will signed 1 September 1821; m. Jemima Van Kirk dau. Henry Van Kirk and Dorothy Morgan, Wilson V. Ledley "The Van Kirk Family" in Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey, XLI #2 (May 1966) and continued in #3 (September 1966), XLI:104. Jemima Van Kirk Barton died 13 April 1815 (NEHGR [April 1953] CVII:114).

Captain Elisha Barton, who was said to have built a fine brick house in Hunterdon County, New Jersey, was an officer in the Eastern Battalion of Morris County, New Jersey in the Revolution (William S. Stryker, Official Register of Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Revolutionary War (Baltimore, Maryland: Genealogical Publishing Co., 1967), p.381; and D.A.R. Patriot Index, (Washington, D.C.: Published by D.A.R. 1966), p.41. (See p.46 this book.)

James Knox Polk was President of the United States 1845-1849, and his campaign slogan of "54°40' or Fight!" meant new frontiers for the country. The end of the Mexican War resulted in the acquisition of territory that became California, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and parts of Colorado and Wyoming. All this ignited the "Western fever" in Elijah Luke to migrate again.

John Dixon of Columbiana County, Ohio received 160 acres of land from the Government (probably bounty land) 17 October 1834. On 8 January 1846 Elijah Luke bought the land situated in Ogden Township, Lenawee County, Michigan from seller John Dixon (Patent) not of record at Lenawee County but at Monroe Land Office at Grayling, Michigan.

"DEED: John Dixon of Ohio to Elijah Luke warranty. Consideration $1,600.00 Jan. 8, 1846. Recorded July 7, 1852 in Liber 31 at Folio 656. Acknowledged Jan. 8, 1846. 40 acres or more. Deed executed in Ohio. Conveyance #4."

The description of the land was as follows:

N 1/2 of W 30@ of E 1/2 of NW 1/4 of Sec. #29 in town(ship)
8 S of Range 4 E in Ogden Twp., Lenawee County, Michigan.

(A Mr. Villegas owned the property in 1957 and loaned the abstract to the author who copied it August 1957.)

The Luke Family Burying Ground was private, and located in a peaceful grove of whispering trees on the bank of a picturesque creek on the home farm, south of the east-west highway in Section 29. There were only five graves:

1. Elijah Luke.
2. Abigail Barton Luke (Houghtby), his wife.
3. Elizabeth (Luke) McComb, wife of William.
4. Reuben McComb, infant son of Elizabeth & William.
5. Robert McComb, infant son of William & 2nd wife.

Abigail Barton Luke, 58, m. 16 February 1853 (2) John Houghtby, 59, b. England (Lenawee County Book of Marriages, 1852-1854). Her tombstone was incised (but misspelled):

"ABIGAIL HOUGHTBY, formerly wife of E.LUKE disceased [sic] died Feb. 7, 1856 aged 63 years 17 days."

Abigail's tombstone was photographed August 1957 by the author on a trip to the vestiges of the Luke Burying Ground. (Tombstone reproduced herewith by a graphics artist). Elijah's gravestone was nowhere to be found.

In 1940 the farm was owned by a Mr. Case, who carefully preserved the fenced-in plot (Bowen, Gravestone, 1940, 3:141). Unlike the 1940 owner, the 1957 owner had broken the headstones into fragments with the inscriptions face down on the ground to form a walkway. With the permission of the 1957 property owner, the author rescued the top part of Abigail Barton Luke Houghtby's heavy tombstone and gave it to Wilcox-Luke relatives to have the gravestone reset at a different cemetery.

Bayview Cemetery Juneau County, Wisconsin; m. (1) ca. 1816 ANNABEL MITCHELL b. 5 December 1793 New Jersey; d. ca. 1840-45 LaGrange, Indiana. Annabel Mitchell was the mother of all of Azel Luke's children. Azel m. (2) 28 December 1852 Dane County, Wisconsin RACHEL BABCOCK.

Azel was head of household in the 1830 Census of Holmes County, Ohio, Salt Creek Township, p.303 with a wife and 3 males under 5. Four doors away lived brother John and his wife, with 3 males: 1 under 5; 1 5-10; 1 10-15; and 2 females: 1 under 5; and 1 5-10. Land deed showed 1834 purchase in Salt Creek Township, Holmes County, Ohio, but Azel lived in Wayne County, Ohio; in 1840 "Aziel" lived in LaGrange County, Indiana (Census); in 1860 in Plymouth Township, Juneau County, Wisconsin; 1870 Census Summit Township, same county, with wife Rachel (née Matt) Quick, the mother of Huldah (née Quick) Luke, wife of John[3] Luke.

Azel died at the home of his daughter, Charlotte Luke Morey, wife of Nelson Morey. After Azel's death, Rachel filed suit in 1874 against his estate, attempting to gain all his property, but his children fought her in Probate Court with Petitions, Protests, and Affidavits.

8. THOMAS[2] LUKE (John[1]) b. 1806 in Shamokin, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania; d.; m. 1 November 1829 Ohio SUSANNAH BASENGER b. ca. 1812 Pennsylvania (LFR).

In 1850 Thomas resided in Williams County, Ohio, and evidently subsequently migrated westward.

Children of Thomas Luke and Susannah Basenger Luke from 1850 Census Williams County, Ohio:

i. Margaret[3] Luke b. 1833.
ii. Mary Luke b. 1835.
iii. Thomas Luke b. 1837.
iv. Sarah Luke b. 1839.
v. Caleb Luke b. 1845.
vi. Catherine Luke b. 1847.
vii. Hannah Luke b. 1850.

The migration pattern following the Revolutionary War, was westward over the Appalachian Mountains. A few years after George Washington said farewell to his Continental Army officers at Fraunces Tavern in New York City, John[1] Luke and his family left New Jersey for Pennsylvania in 1796.

Stark County, Ohio, where John[1] Luke lived in 1830 with his son Elijah[2] Luke, was established in 1808 and named for General John Stark, an officer of the Revolutionary War. One of the great wheat-producing counties, Stark was settled mainly by Pennsylvania Germans.

Revolutionary War soldier John[1] Luke died 7 June 1835 in Wooster, Wayne County, Ohio (see 1846 drawing of the Public Square of Wooster on page 129). Wayne County was established in 1796, and was the third vast county formed in the Northwest Territory. It included a part of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, and all of Michigan.

EASTERN ENTRANCE INTO SALEM, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, OHIO
Where Abigail[3] Ann Luke and Elijah[3] Luke were born.

Since Abigail[3] Ann Luke and Elijah[3] Luke were born in 1834 and 1836 respectively, Salem appeared much like this sketch at the time they left to move to Michigan in 1846.

Columbiana County was settled in 1797 when a family or two moved across the Ohio and settled in the county, which was settled in 1803 by Germans and Scotch-Irish.

[46]Drawings from the books by Henry Howe, Historical Collections of Ohio, copyright 1888, published by the State of Ohio (Cincinnati: C.J. Krehbiel & Co., Printers, 1904), I:449 and II:834 (see p.129). On 10 October 1995 the author telephoned Mr. Rob Krehbiel in Cincinnati for permission to use the 1846 drawings. Mr. Krehbiel, a descendant of the founder of the company, stated that the company actually did not have jurisdiction, but that enough years had gone by that the drawings could be considered in the public domain and could therefore be used.

An endearing letter in the possession of the author was written in now-faded brown ink from Elbertine Luke to Abigail Luke.

Ogden, Michigan
January 28, 1859

Dear Sister,

I guess you will think I have nothing else to do but write. I am getting a little the start of you. Well, I suppose I do have more time than you do to spare. It is mud, mud, nothing but mud. I am nearly sick of it; I was in hopes it would come good sleighing so we could go out and see you, but I am afraid we will have to give it up. You wondered why Sarah did not write. She got a letter from you and answered it nearly a month ago. I don't see why you have not received it. There was a letter advertised for you in the Expositer; perhaps if you would ask for an advertised letter you would get it. Elisha* and Sarah* have gone to John* Ritchey's today & expect to stay till Monday and visit around there. Mrs. Wilcox* is gowing [sic] to Adrian tomorrow so Elijah and I will be alone. E's foot is almost well; it is so he can walk round quite comfortable, but can't ware [sic] his boot.

Our house is getting along daly [sic]. We think we will be living in it in two or three weeks. Elijah says you must come and eat dinner with us when we get there. We had some Johnny cake and milk the other night for supper. I was wishing that you was here to help us eat it. Emanuel expects to move into his house Monday or Tuesday.

The meetings have broke up at the log school house and they have organized a class there & Corlette is leader. There has not all joined that will probably. Bro. Buck is gowing [sic] to hold a protracted meeting in his own neighborhood. He intends to commence Monday night. He expects Mr. Bowser to assist him. It is getting dark and I must quit. Write very soon.

Yours truly,
Elbertine

To Miss A.A. Luke

*Elisha Luke and Sarah Wilcox Luke were the brother and sister-in-law of Elijah Luke and Elbertine Luke. John Ritchey was the husband of Mary Ann Luke Ritchey, another sister. Mrs. Wilcox was Azubah Mark Wilcox (Mrs. Aaron Wilcox), mother of Sarah Wilcox Luke.

FOURTH GENERATION

Revolutionary War Soldier John[1] Luke and his sons, who lived in Ohio in the 1830s and 1840s, were pleased when a fellow resident of the state, who had been named a U.S. Congressman from Ohio, Ohio state senator and U.S. Senator from Ohio, was elected U.S. President in 1840 on the catchy slogan "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." At that time, people were slowly recovering from the financial Panic of 1837.

The elation of the Ohio Lukes at his election was cut short when William Henry Harrison died after only a month in office, the first President to die in the White House.

THE PRESIDENT

Further Details of the Great Crime.

Additional Despatches from the Secretary of War.

What is Known of the Assassins.

THE OFFICIAL DESPATCHES.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, April 15—9:10 A. M.

Major General Dix, New York:—

The President continues insensible and sinking.

Secretary Seward remains without change; Frederick Seward's skull is fractured in two places, besides a severe cut upon the head. The attendant is still alive but hopeless. Major Seward's wounds are not dangerous.

It is now ascertained with reasonable certainty, that two assassins were engaged in the horrible crime, Wilkes Booth being the one that shot the President, and the other an accomplice, whose name is not known, but whose description is so clear that he can hardly escape.

It appears from papers found in Booth's trunk that the murder was planned before the 4th of March, but fell through then, because the accomplice backed out until "Richmond could be heard from."

Booth and his accomplice were at the livery stable at 6 o'clock last evening, and left here with their horses at 10 o'clock, or shortly before that hour.

It would appear that they had, for several days, been seeking their chance, but for some unknown reason it was not carried into effect untill last night.

One of the assassins has evidently made his way to Baltimore; the other has not yet been traced.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

THE PRESIDENT DEAD.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, April 15—7:30 A. M.

Major General Dix, New York:—

Abraham Lincoln died this morning at twenty-two minutes past 7 o'clock.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

Atwater, Ohio January 6, 1927

Dear Cousin Preston C. Luke,

I received a letter from you yesterday and so glad to get it. I am the last surviving member in our family living in Atwater, the last Luke I mean. Aunt Leorah passed on July 24, 1917 after 2 weeks of failing health. I am also sending you a picture of her home where she died and it was Grandpa's* old homestead. They cleared and settled the land when they came to Ohio. It now is sold and in the hands of strangers. Aunt Leorah and Ola, Aunt Sarah's girl are standing out in front. I am Henry's girl. I have just one sister, she lives at Barberton. I never had any brothers, just us two. Ethel Alexander her name is now. My father died December 12, 1918. Mother is still living and lives with me when not working at nursing the sick. My father died with Bright's disease in his 63rd year. My mother is quite well. Aunt Amelia Woolf died March 10, 1924. Her husband died a good many years ago, about 1902, I think. They had just one boy, Merritt Woolf. The last I knew they lived in Indianapolis, Indiana. Then Aunt Mary died January 28, 1911 at Wooster, Ohio. Her man, Uncle Albert Dix, is way up in his 80s. They had one son Emmett Dix and Uncle Albert lives with him and his wife. Emmett has 5 boys--one pair of twins. Aunt Mary Dix is buried at Wooster, Ohio. Then Aunt Sarah is the last living one of the family. She lives at Braceville. Her and Uncle Webb Jewell he hasn't been at all well and she had such trouble with her eyes I should think about 10 years ago...I shall send your letter on to her as she will be so glad to hear from you. She was born March 18, 1854 so you see she is not young anymore. She has an adopted daughter and husband that live with them, and they have a little boy, Frank Bell. My family: my sister has two boys and I have one boy 24 years old and one girl 21 years old, and my husband, Allen Myers. My girl teaches school in the City of Alliance, 2nd grade. Comes home every night 9 miles. her name is Blanche and Claude is my boy. He farms and trucks. I know you will get a letter from Aunt Sarah in the future. Her address is Newton Falls, Ohio now. Uncle Albert and his boy Emmett are newspapermen with Wooster Daily Republican. All that are dead, of family, my grandparents and on back are all buried here in Atwater. Only Aunt Mary Dix in Wooster. I am 42 years old...Aunt Sarah lives 25 miles from me but with the auto and good roads I can soon go. My grandfather's name was Isaac Luke. I will wait with interest to hear from you about your family. There isn't many of us left. I am so glad you wrote this letter and it reached me. I will wait for your reply.

Sincerely,

*Isaac Luke b.1817 My name is Elsie Luke (Mrs. Allen Myers)

UNPLACED LUKE COUSINS

Abigail Ann Luke received a letter dated 10 February 1858 from an unidentified Luke cousin, Ruth Houseweart. The engaging letter, complete with the original misspellings and grammar preserved, is reproduced herewith.

"Dallas City, Hancock County, Ill.
February the 10 1858

Dear Cousin:

I take my pen in hand to inform you that we are all well at present. Mother receive your kind letter and was glad to hear from you.

Mother was quite surprise to see a letter from you, she thought you had forgoten her - wanted to know what had become of me and Robert. Robert and Father are living in Missouri a bout sixty miles from hear. Elisabeth and I are living at home with Mother now, but I work away from home sometimes. Elisabeth are going to school this winter. There is none of us married but Maryann she married a man by the name of George Hisber she has five children two Girls and three Boys, we are living on Hisbers place about twenty yards from them. You wanted to know how fur it was from hear to uncle Elisha I think it is a bout ninty miles from hear. Mother was up to uncle Elisha last winter on a visit and uncle Elisha was teling Mother all a bought the deaths of your folks.* Mother would like to go and see you all if she can she dont like to go alone - we would like it very much if you could com and see us - I would like to see all my cousins as I was quite small when I saw you all. I cant remember it. I dont know wether you can read my righting as I am a very poor spelor.

Maryann sends her best respects to you all - nomore at present but I remain your affection cousin.
pleas write soon. Ruth Houseweart to Abigail A. Luke"

*Abigail Ann Luke's father Elijah Luke died in 1850 and her mother Abigail Barton Luke died in 1856.

Dallas City is on the Mississippi River across from Ft. Madison, Iowa. Downriver about 25 miles, Iowa touches Missouri.

The author of this book seeks information about Ruth Houseweart. If anyone knows her identity or the identity of any other mentioned members of her family, please advise the author. Author is in possession of the original letter.

THE NEW YORK

GENEALOGICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL

RECORD

VOL. 127 NUMBER 4

OCTOBER 1996

THE WILCOX-LUKE GENEALOGY, Descendants of Joel Wilcox and Catharine Randall of Connecticut, New York, Michigan and Indiana, and of John Luke, Revolutionary War Soldier of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Michigan, by Dyane Monroe Dye Wood, C.G. 1996. Cloth, 6×9, illus., index, 200p. Price: $25.00 plus $3.50 p&h from the author, P.O. Box 1168, Little River, SC 29566-1168. [G W 64311]

Joel Wilcox was born in Connecticut at the time of the Revolutionary War, and at an early age came to upstate New York, where his wife Catharine Randall was born; as the parents of this couple have not been identified, the genealogy wisely begins with them. John Luke was a Revolutionary War soldier born in New Jersey, whose parentage is also uncertain, as is the maiden name of his first wife. The two families come together with the marriage in Michigan *ca.*1858 of Luther Wilcox and Jane Ann Luke. Dyane Wood has traced descendants of these families to the present day, and it is a pleasure to be able to say that her compilation bears the hallmarks of a good genealogy. She has used Register format, and her extensive documentation includes particularly good use of the periodical literature. The basic genealogy is also enhanced by many biographical sketches and interesting illustrations. The result is a welcome contribution to American family history.
